In extending welcome to the new bishop for the laity of the diocese, Juhn P. Dullard, State Librarian, of this city, referred to the achievements of the pre tate in other fields, and emphasized that be would stimulate the communicants of the diocese to more fervent zeal in their religious duties and to the upbuilding of the diocese. He referred to the late Bishop Eagan, of Philadelphia, having dedicated the first Catholic church in this city on June 12, 1814, and the growth of the diocese, which in 1881 was separated from the diocese of Newark.

There are now upward of 175,000 souls in the Trenton diocese, he said, with nearly 200 Catholic churches, valued at millions of dollars, and more than 200 prices and there are the same than priests, and there

G. O. P. WAR PARTY, HAYS SAYS

braska State Convention Lincoln, Neb., July 31. - Will H. Hays, in an address to the State Republican Convention, characterized the Republican party as the "war party of the nation," and insisted upon the "right of full participation in this greatest of all crises." He charged the Democratic party was "playing politics" and closed with the assertion a Republican victory in 1919 would mean an ever increasing prosecution of the war. He left here for Denver. The convention adopted resolutions tion When Arrested Here Arrested today for deserting his wife in Erie County, N. Y. Frank Eichel. 2560 Ann street, surprised the detectives when he told them that he had left her because she had paid him $25 to "get rid" of him. The money, he explained, was given bin after he had quarreled with her and along with it she expressed a wish that she might "never lay eyes on him again." He is being held to await extra-dition to Erie County, where he can de-mand an explanation from his wife.
