

Evening Public Ledger

and
THE EVENING TELEGRAPH

Philadelphia, Thursday August 8, 1918

"THE VERY STUFF OF TRIUMPH"

THE AMERICAN SHIPWORKER DEFIES RECORD-MAKING HEAT IN HIS HEROIC FIGHT FOR FREEDOM
"The Spirit of '76" animates this Hog Island riveter, who, under a blazing sun that radiated blistering heat from the steel hull at which he and his companions worked, drove bolt after bolt home that no time might be lost in America's shipbuilding schedule.