GOOD POINTS -SHE'S GONE-By DWIG SCHOOL DAYS

On the First Car I've noticed on the subway trains, Where dwells an atmosphere that's Where dwells an atmosphere that's stuffy.

The girl up front in front remains,
Though winds disturb her garments fluffy.

Annoyed? Well, no! I fancy that She knows that she's worth looking at.

Nobody Home

"Rent? Why, ther woughtn't to be any rent. Tell the landlord we slept in the tube all last week."

Cartoons Magazine. It divides honors with the family goldfish, the mother-in-law's pet spaniel and paintings.

The Staggered Skip-Stop

That the lambkins love their skip-All the poets will allow. Prosale fact is fancy stripping

For the cars are skipping now.

The Kaiser's Grip The Kaiser has the grip, they say.
His subjects do not give a darn.
I don't believe it anyway. I think he lost it at the Marne.

—Billy Ludlow

Nothing Else to Do

-The Passing Show "Eut, my dear fellow, if you don't care for her, why on earth did you propose?"
"Well—er—we'd danced three bally dances, and I couldn't think of anything else to say."

Kaiser Bill should come round here

HE'LL LEARN LATER

We'd keep him on the move His gast would surely be intense At speeding he'd improve
