Philadelphia, Aug. 10, 1918. To the Employers and Newspapers of Pennsylvania.

In order that the regulations of the War Labor Program may be put into effect with the least possible disturbance to Pennsylvania industries, the following procedure is to be observed with reference to advertising for unskilled labor by employers engaged wholly or partly in war work and having in their employ a total force of one hundred

1. Advertisements should not exceed 5 inches, single column, in any one newspaper on any one day. Any number of newspapers may be used.

3. Advertisements should not state:

(a) Number of men required. Rate of compensation. (c) Hours of work.

(d) Any other specific or general inducement not herein provided for.

4. Advertisements may state:

(a) Type of industry.
(b) General classification of work to be done.
(c) Name of employer.

(d) Location of plant.

Advertisements must state, "Apply to nearest U. S. Employment Service Office" or "Apply to U. S. Employment Service Office at (address of specific U. S. Employment Service Office).

Advertisements may state either "Bring this ad with you" or 'Ask for Mr. ---," or both. It is requested that the above regulations concerning advertis ing for unskilled labor should also apply to advertising for skilled labor.

It is further requested that all advertisements inserted by firms employing less than one hundred persons, or those en gaged in less essential industries, should conform with the above regulations.

9. These regulations are effective at once and will continue in effect until further notice.

E. C. FELTON. Federal Director for Pennsylvania. U. S. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE,

The Public Ledger Company is glad to announce that the Public Ledger and the Evening Public Ledger will adhere strictly to the above regulations. Articles 7 and 8 are presented as requests, but the Public Ledger Company, at this time, construes any request of the Government equivalent to an order.
