

Evening Public Ledger

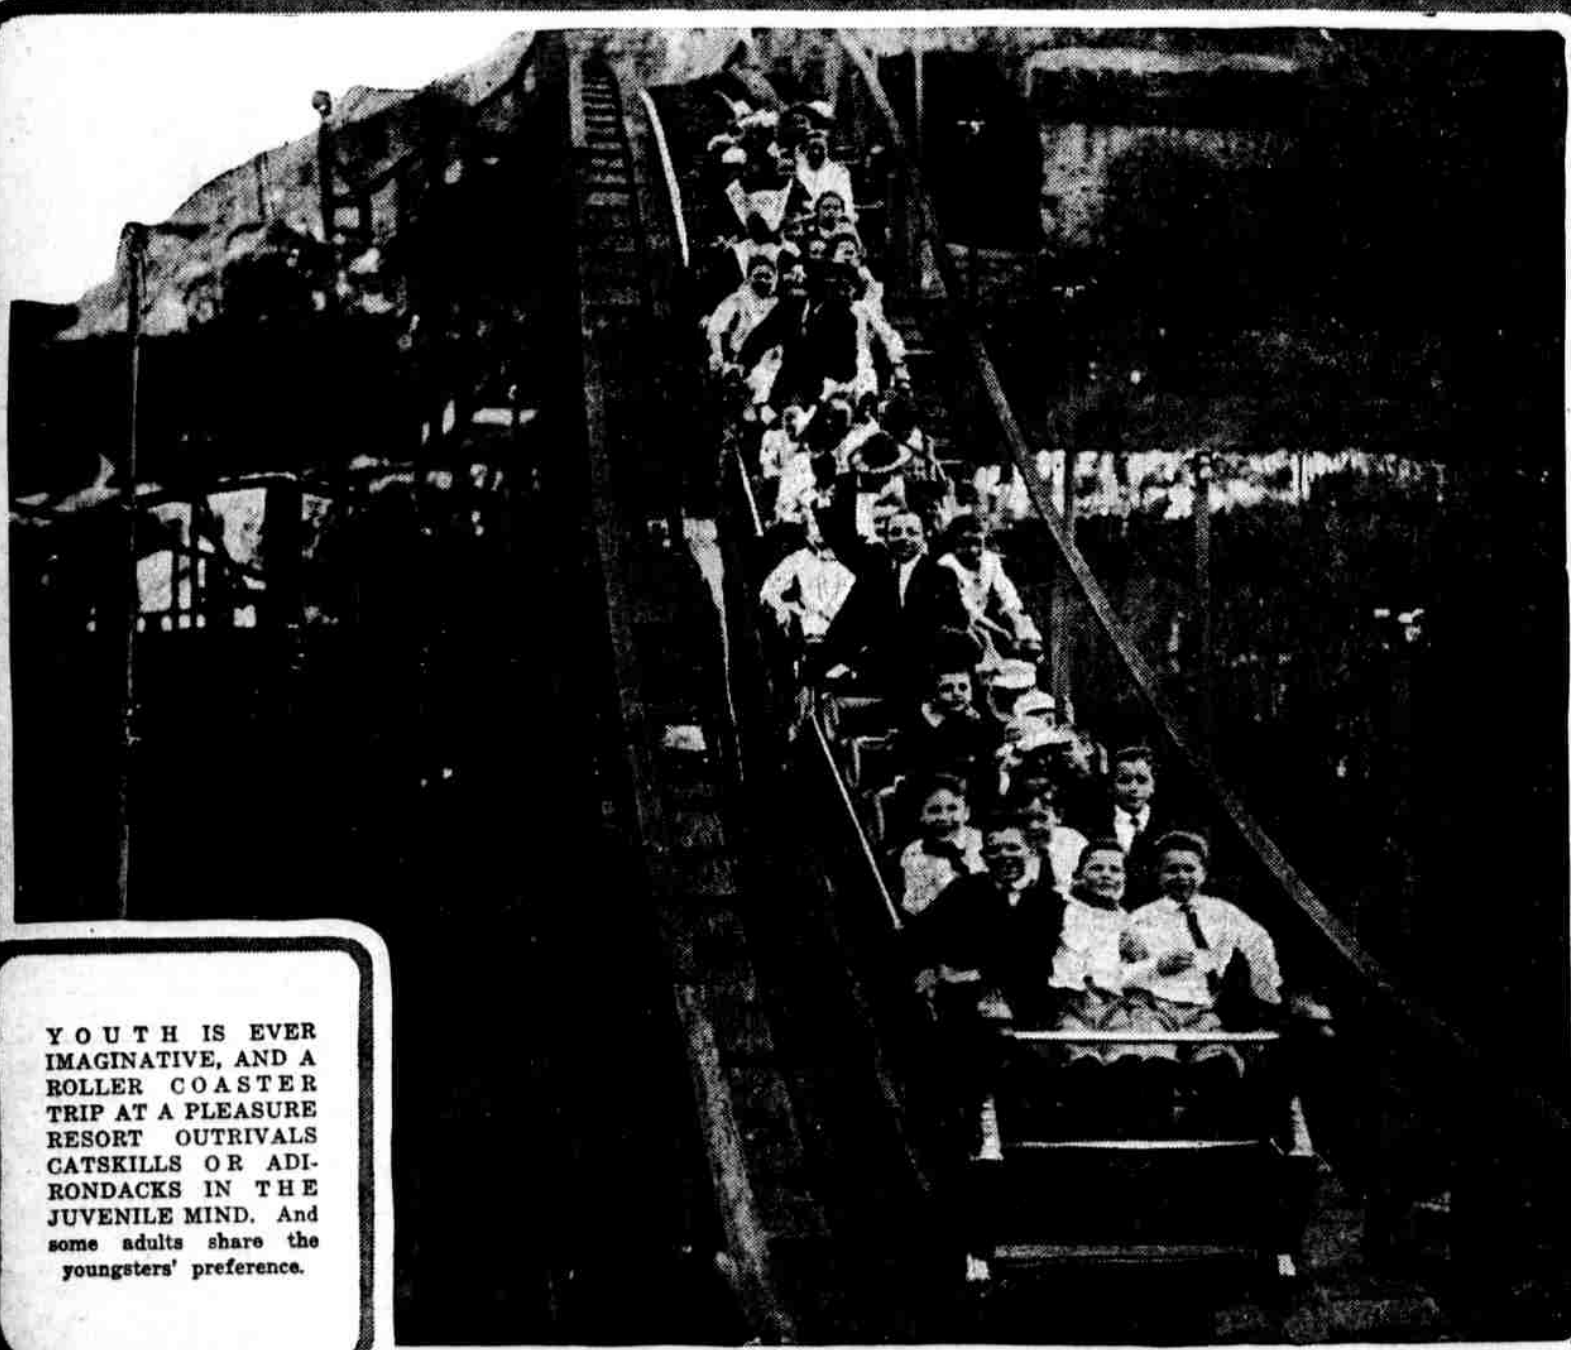

and
THE EVENING TELEGRAPH

Philadelphia, Thursday, August 15, 1918

HOW STAY-AT-HOMES ENJOY VACATION DELIGHTS OF MOUNTAIN, FIELD AND SEASHORE

FATHER, MOTHER AND THE KIDDIES, NOT OMITTING THE NEIGHBORS, "SPEND A DAY IN THE COUNTRY" WITH REAL HOME COOKING amid the many delightful picnic grounds of Fairmount Park.

YOUTH IS EVER IMAGINATIVE, AND A ROLLER COASTER TRIP AT A PLEASURE RESORT OUTRIVALS CATSKILLS OR ADIRONDACKS IN THE JUVENILE MIND. And some adults share the youngsters' preference.

THERE IS NO YEARNING FOR FAR-OFF FIELDS AND PLAYGROUNDS WHEN MISS PHILADELPHIA, JR., finds opportunities for open-air sport such as this within walking distance of home.

IT WOULD BE UNGALLANT TO DEPICT THE MOONLIGHT CANOEING "DOUBLES" ALONG THE SCHUYLKILL, but vacationists other than sturdy oarsmen find home waters enjoyable and romantic as distant streams.

WHERE ALONG THE ENTIRE JERSEY COAST MAY A BATH LIKE THIS BE HAD? And here in its own backyard the whole stay-at-home family joyously indulges in a "shower."