IL NEMICO RESPONSIVO AL FRONTE ITALIANO

Gli Austriaci Invano Attaccano le Posizioni sulle Montagne

Published and Distributed Under Authority of the War Department, Philadelphia, Pa.

Roma, 17 agosto. Dalle notizie giunte dal fronte di battaglia si rileva che i nemici hanno invano attaccato le posizioni occupate dagli Italiani sulle montagne, specialmente nella regione del Tonale, dove l'attacco fu sostenuto con eroismo sulle posizioni avanzate, che recentemente sono state occupate dagli Italiani.

Un altro attacco, ripetuto per ben tre volte, è stato operato dal nemico contro il distaccamento di truppe italiane che l'altro, occupò una isola a sud-est di Grace di Papadopoli, catturando la guarnigione nemica che si trovava in una posizione avanzata. Il nemico non riuscì a penetrare nelle posizioni, e gli austriaci subirono perdite considerevoli.

Ecco il testo del comunicato pubblicato dal Ministero della Guerra, in base ai rapporti del Comando Supremo Italiano: "Nella regione del Tonale il nemico tentò una poderosa azione contro le posizioni avanzate recentemente occupate dalle nostre truppe, ma fu respinto. Sul Piave, a sud-est di Grave di Papadopoli, il nemico per tre volte attaccò le posizioni italiane sotto il precedente giorno. Tutti e tre gli attacchi furono respinti con gravi perdite per il nemico.

Quattro scoppiati avvenuti ed un pallone aerostatico abbattuti dai nostri aviatori." Dal Fronte Italiano, 15 agosto. Parecchi membri della Croce Rossa Americana, addetti al servizio delle ambulanze, sono stati decorati della Croce di Guerra Italiana per l'eroica condotta sul Monte Grappa, nei primi del giugno scorso. I decorati sono: Capitano R. W. Bates di Cambridge, Mass.; John Cloud di St. Louis; Joseph W. H. di New York; James H. di Minneapolis; ed il Luogotenente Giovanni di Florida.

La Croce Rossa Americana ha ingenuamente operato stabilendo delle cucine per la distribuzione di minestre alla popolazione indigente di Treviso, la città che dall'epoca della ritirata di Novara è stata sotto il fuoco austriaco. Il nuovo servizio è sotto la direzione del maggiore Ernesto Fabbrì, assistito dal capitano M. G. Leuconter. Circa 500 razioni di minestra e carne Tail razioni sono date ai cittadini rimasti senza casa, i quali, nonostante il continuo bombardamento, hanno voluto abbandonare il suolo nativo. I rappresentanti del Governo Italiano hanno avuto parole di massime simpatie e tanto lavoro filantropico ed umanitario.

Dispacci giunti dalla Svizzera recano che il Governo Austriaco ha deciso di prendere severe misure per reprimere il movimento Jugoslavo.

RINGRAZIAMENTI AGLI ITALIANI DI CHESTER

Il 3 aprile u. s., in Chester, Pa., il Generale Guglielmo, in rappresentanza del Regio Esercito, ed il Regio Console Cav. Uff. Pocarodi, rappresentante il Governo Italiano, riceverono in una segna un'ambasciata di prodotti soldati d'Italia, i fondi per la quale furono raccolti ad iniziativa della locale "Dante Alighieri" dell'Ordine Filii d'Italia in America, ed un comitato presieduto dal farmacista Nicola Albanese. L'ambasciata consisteva di 21 giugose scorse giugine in Genova, ed ora il Regio Console italiano in Philadelphia ha fatto pervenire al Sig. Albanese la seguente lettera:

"Pregiatissimo Signore. Con riferimento a precedente corrispondenza, ho il progetto di rinviare in S. V. che il Ministero della Guerra, Direzione Generale della Sanità Militare, al quale è giunto l'annuncio dell'arrivo di un'ambasciata donata al nostro Esercito della Colonia di Chester, Pa., mi incaricò di far giungere al Comitato di beneficenza ed alla Colonia di Chester i più sentiti ringraziamenti per la generosa offerta e di esprimere i miei sensi del più vivo piano per i sentimenti di alto patriottismo e di devozione che codesti connazionali nutrono verso la Madre Patria. Non potendo personalmente recare il mio cordiale saluto, ho pregato il mio segretario incaricato, il signor Francesco, di rinviare le, pregatissimo Signore, i miei sensi della mia distinta stima. Il Regio Console (firmato) G. Buccardi."

Il Sig. Albanese, nel rendere di pubblica ragione la sopriscritta lettera, ci prega di porgere i suoi vivi ringraziamenti a quanti contribuirono, sia moralmente che materialmente, al successo della nobile e patriottica iniziativa a pro del glorioso Esercito Italiano.

Teutons Seize Kronstadt Port

Continued from Page One before we withdraw we shall close the door behind us with such force that they will remember us for a very long time.

On the other hand, the early occupation of Petrograd by the Germans is expected. They wish to organize resistance on the line between Petrograd and Zwickau against the Allied push from the Murman coast.

All the Moscow and Petrograd papers are full of suggestions and hints. The streets threaten severe penalties for the spreading of disquieting rumors. News is whispered in the ear at cafes and in barber shops for fear of spies, as in the time of Savonarola.

All telegraphic communication with Entente countries having ceased, the latest events on the western front are learned only from German front bulletins. The proclamation by the Entente Governments to the Russian people regarding the landings on the Murman coast and at Vladivostok is not known.

A state of siege has been proclaimed in all the regions near the Czechoslovak and English. Recently a state of siege has been proclaimed at Koltas, the present point where contact is possible between the Czechoslovak and English. All foreigners have been expelled from Koltas.

Entente Citizens Held

About ninety of these civilians were still in custody. Mr. Poole said he had been general reported, and are receiving adequate protection at present.

Members of the International Red Cross, including several Americans, are doing excellent work in the general relief of the prisoners. They are greatly assisted by the members of the Red Cross who are also afforded protection.

From Finnish news bureau reports, it is learned that the State Department heard today that the Soviet Government is making hasty preparations to evacuate its troops and other institutions from Moscow for this reason, it was stated, all private property and freight traffic from Moscow has been stopped.

Reports Irkutsk Taken

Capture of Irkutsk, the important lake port of the Trans-Siberian railroad, by the Siberian army, was announced in a belated dispatch from American Consul, Harbin, at the State Department.

The consular report through the American Embassy at Peking, He had not been heard from for many weeks. It is reported that he was in the lines of communication, and the presence in Irkutsk of Bolshevik forces, German and Austrian prisoners.

The railway to Samara is open from Irkutsk to the eastward, but it is not running through to Moscow. The Czech commander, he said, had lost 250 men killed and 1200 wounded.

Quartermasters also report the establishment of the new Siberian Government with headquarters at Irkutsk, where a peace conference was held. The determination to fight the German.

All Americans in the Western Siberian section are reported safe.

GERMANY INTENDS TO BREAK WITH REDS

Washington, Aug. 17.—German intention to break with the Bolsheviks and throw an army into Russia to combat them, has been reported here in official circles.

Withdrawal of German Ambassador von Mumm from Kiev is declared to be a result of the German intention to carry out the elaborate program of operations on the wheat crops of southern Russia.

Next in importance is the arrival from Berlin of German and Austrian ministers to Russia. Feeling against both of these diplomats is said to have been based on reports of their Turkish violations of Russian territorial integrity and reports were that several attempts to the lives of both were frustrated by the Bolsheviks.

The opinion here is that the Germans realize that the Bolshevik power has been at its best course is to prepare for the re-establishment of the eastern frontier as far within Russian territory as is possible.

A number of military men hold the view that Germany will make a special appeal to the Bolsheviks, and will seize Moscow, and will attempt to draw a line from Petrograd, through Moscow, along the Don or Volga Rivers, to the Caspian Sea.

The British "Big Push"

The British faculty of tackling the task of war as though it were a gigantic game is reflected in every page of the account of the Battle of the Somme, which is published in the "Pimpernel" which will eventually help to win the war and because Captain Dugmore is a true hero, it is not surprising that the pages of his narrative with a certain buoyancy that is at times almost boyish.

HE WAS NOT A READY-MADE HERO

Locke Writes of a Man Who Entered the War to Find His Soul

William J. Locke, in "The Red Planet," showed how the soul of a moral warrior is shattered by the great strain of war. The man in this case was to all external appearance a heroic soldier who won glory. But in the end he killed himself rather than face life with the consciousness of a man who is unworthy upon him.

Of course it is a story of the war and of course it is English. It opens in a quiet city, James Marmaduke Trevor is exhibited in his own home in which he was reared by his widowed mother. His father had been the cathedral dean. He is really a young lady in all his tastes and habits.

He drifts into an engagement to marry the daughter of a wealthy man, but he takes no interest in it, as he has been taught to believe that he has a delicate constitution. He is finally goaded by a physical examination into taking a walk with her.

After having a commission in the army, he is sent to the front in a private uniform for incompetence he is in despair. Then he enlists as a private soldier to prove to himself that he is not a coward.

He becomes somebody else

He De Vere Staepole has not written a more fascinatingly interesting story than "The Man Who Lost Himself."

Harold McGrath's Latest

Harold McGrath can be counted on to produce a story that is as good as any that has been written in the past.

The Scarlet Pimpernel

The delightful and irrefragable hero "The Scarlet Pimpernel" lives again; in fact, dominates Baroness Orczy's latest novel, "Lord Tony's Wife."

SOLDIERS' SPOKEN FRENCH

The very best pocket COMRADE for the American soldier in France. It contains all the necessary words for an English soldier to get on with the knowledge of speaking French.

Merry Andrew

The delightful and irrefragable hero "The Scarlet Pimpernel" lives again; in fact, dominates Baroness Orczy's latest novel, "Lord Tony's Wife."

Gene Stratton-Porter

Gene Stratton-Porter has written a thoroughly American story of a woman's achievement. It is a book that fits the times perfectly, though there is not a word about war in it.

GOOD NEW NOVELS BY AMERICAN AND ENGLISH WRITERS

WHAT LIFE DOES TO KATE BATES

The Heroine of Mrs. Porter's New Novel Is Refined by Adversity

Mrs. Gene Stratton-Porter, who may be called the feminine Harold Wright of American fiction, has created a character that is likely to appeal to thousands of Americans in her latest novel, "A Daughter of the Land."

Kate Bates is the daughter of a farmer who gives 200 acres of land to each of his sons on their marriage, but gives nothing to his daughter. Kate is not content with the system, and when her father refuses to allow her to prepare herself for teaching school she borrows the money and leaves home.

The story is full of thrill and excitement, but it is not a mere romance. It is a story of a woman who is refined by adversity.
