[The full list of casualties announced today by the War Department is printed on Page 4.]

This list of casualties, received through the mails from the War Department, is published under an agreement with officials at Washington. No use has been made of this information in advance of publication to obtain pictures or sketches of the soldiers whose names appear in the list.

The names of ten more Philadelphians have been added to the city's honor roll. General Pershing's casualty list, made public within the last twenty-four hours, also reports twelve soldiers from this city missing and nine wounded.

A soldier from Chester is reported killed in action; another from Chester is wounded; an enlisted man from Landale is wounded, as is also one from Media and an officer from Narberth.

Three of the Philadelphians reported killed had previously been listed as missing. An officer was killed in an airplane accident, while a private died from the results of an accident.

The Chester soldier killed was Private Harry Brust. The enlisted man reported missing in action is Private Herman V.
Benson.

Today's casualty list contains 400 names. The total for yesterday and today is 871. The list includes the following Philadelphians wounded and missing:

JERSEY MOTHER KILLS 3 BABIES; HIDES IN WOODS

Drowns Twins and Shoots 2-Year-Old Near Pitman
Grove

After killing three of her four sons early today, it is charged, Gertrude Powell, wife of Jacob Powell, a farmer living near Pitman Grove, N. J., fled into woods and last seen going toward Bunker Hill.

Taking her twin sons, Samuel and Augustus, four months old, from their crib before other occupants of the house were awake, it is alleged, she drowned them in a vat of water behind the house. Then she carried the bodies back into the house and put each in a baby carriage.

Her next move, it is said, was to take A. Stewart Powell, two years old, into a field near the house and shoot him in the left side with a shotgun. She also stabbed him in the abdomen, the authorities say. Mrs. Powell carried the boy into the house and put him on a couch.

Chamberlain, grandfather of the slain children, found the bodies.
The father of the children was in Philadelphia, having brought a load of produce here last night. When he returned Saturday night, Mr. Johnson found his wife had several times threatened to kill the twins and herself.

AUTOIST ESCAPES HIGHWAYMEN

C. A. Johnson Threatened Near Ocean City by Gunmen

C. A. Johnson, vice president of the Newark Coal Company, was held up by a masked highwayman on the outskirts of Ocean City Saturday night. Mr. Johnson speeded up his automobile and escaped.

It is reported that highwaymen, operating in an automobile, held up four other automobile parties Saturday night and early Sunday morning.

Mr. Johnson, who was driving his wife and three other women from Atlantic City to Cape May, was accosted by the highwayman shortly after 11 o'clock at night.

"I noticed two cars in the road," said Mr. Johnson, "slowed down and passed them. Fifteen or twenty yards beyond the machines a big man wearing a white mask and holding a revolver in his right hand jumped from the bushes and yelled 'Hands up!'" "I put on speed and made my escape, I heard two cars speeding after me.

Reaching a well-lighted section, I stopped my car and waited. Two cars passed, but I am not sure they contained the hold-up men."

U-BOAT SINKS NORSE BARK

Nordhav Down 120 Miles Off Cape—Crew Rescued
By the Associated Press

Washington, Aug. 19.—The Norwegian bark Nordhav was sunk by a German submarine 120 miles southeast of Cape Henry Saturday. Her crew of twenty-five escaped in small boats and have been brought into an Atlantic port by an American warship.

Advices to the Navy Department today announced the sinking. It did not say whether the bark was torpedoed or sailed. She was a vessel of 2623 net tons and sailed on June 15 from Buenos Aires, Argentina. Captain Bernsten was master of the bark.

PERSHING TELLS BIDDLE'S FEAT

Victory Over German by American Airman Officially Reported
By the Associated Press

Washington, Aug. 19.—Captain Charles J. Biddle, of Andalusia, Pa., was the American aviator who brought down a German airplane in the Lorraine region mentioned in General Pershing's official communique August 17. Additional details are contained in Section B of the communique for that day, made public today.

"Section B. The following details of the aerial combat referred to in Section A have been reported in Lorraine:—
"Captain Biddle brought down a Rumpler machine northwest of Boulogne-Aux-Bois August 17. The machine was shot down at 4:30 p. m. The observer was killed and the pilot wounded, but the machine landed intact."

TIGERS SCORE EIGHT TALLIES ON TWO HITS

Watson and Gregg Give Seven Passes, Allow Two Safeties and Damage Is Done
By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

Shibe Park, Aug. 19.—The generosity of Watson and Gregg, combined with a timely single and double enabled the Tigers to tally eight runs in the sixth inning in the third game of the series here this afternoon and take the lead over the Mackmen.

With one down in the sixth Watson walked the next four men. Gregg then went to the hill and the first man to face him singled. Then the next three men walked, another flied out, and with the bases jammed, Bush tripled and eight runs were in. Adams then relieved Gregg.

Previous to the disastrous sixth the Macks enjoyed a 2 to 0 lead. The Athletes put over three runs in their half of the sixth, forcing C. Jones out of the game. Kallio went to Jones's rescue.

When Acosta batted for Adams in the sixth, Jamieson was called in from the outfield to do the hitting. Acosta then went to right field.

FIRST INNING

Dugan ran over back of second and threw out Bush. R. Jones grounded to Burns. Cobb flied to Dykes. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Jamieson singled to centre. Kopp followed to R. Jones. Walker flied to Veach. C. Jones threw out Burns. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SECOND INNING

Dugan threw out Veach. Griggs walked. Harper fanned. Griggs was doubled up sailing. McAvoy to Dykes.
No runs, no hits, no errors.

R. Jones threw out Gardner. C.
Jones tossed out McAvoy. Bush fumbled Dykes's roller. Dugan singled to left.
Watson singled to left, scoring left.

SENATE TAKES UP DRAFT BILL ON THURSDAY

Enactment Before End of Week

LEAVES NO LOOPHOLES
FOR WEDDED SLACKERS

Baker Tells Committee Youngest Selectives Will Go Last

"VICTORY NEXT YEAR!"

March Outlines His Plans to Bring Enemy to Knees
Early in 1919

By the Associated Press
Washington, Aug. 19.—Consideration of the new man-power bill extending the draft ages will begin in the Senate next Thursday. With a quorum present today, the Senate set aside the agreement for a vacation recess until August 24, and cleared the way for taking up the draft measure without further delay.

Fifty-seven Senators—twenty-nine Republicans and twenty-eight Democrats —answered today's roll-call. As soon as it was found that a quorum was present Senator Chamberlain asked that the recess agreement be vacated. There was no opposition. He then announced that he would bring up the man-power bill Thursday. Upon the motion of Senator Nelson, of Minnesota, the ranking Republican present, the Senate at once adjourned out of respect to the late Senator Gallinger.

Senator Chamberlain said today he hoped to dispose of the bill by the last of this week.

Recently Married Men Liable

No general exemption of married men, simply because of their married status, is contemplated by the War Department in preparing for the proposed extension of draft ages. Secretary Baker declared today in a statement before the House Military Committee on the new draft bill.

Mr. Baker said his previous remarks on this subject had been misconstrued, and that married men who do not support their families and who are not engaged in useful occupations will continue to be called.

"There are many married men in the country who ought to go and fight as freely as single men," he added.

Must Hasten Victory

"There are two ways of prosecuting this war," Mr. Baker said. "One way is to make every possible effort to do it now, and the other is to proceed somewhat more leisurely and do it late. The obvious advantage from every standpoint, social, military, industrial and economic, is to put forth every effort in this country and win the war as soon as possible."

Having an explanation of the manpower situation to General Crowder, the Secretary announced that, because of objections to calling boys of eighteen, he had planned to defer their call as soon as possible.

BULLITT'S DEATH IN WAR DOUBTED

Letters From Lieutenant Indicate Casualty Report Was Error

Although Second Lieutenant Richard Stockton Bullitt, of the 110th Infantry, was officially reported last Thursday as having been killed in action during the big drive on July 19, relatives of the Philadelphia officer believe he may be alive.

To substantiate this belief they point to the case of Second Lieutenant Leon P. Roemer, 1714 North Newkirk street.
He was officially reported as killed on July 19, but a letter received by his mother on July 28 stated he had been wounded and was confined in a French hospital. Later this message was substantiated by an official announcement from the War Department.

FATHER ASKS INQUIRY

Last Thursday night Logan M. Bullitt, father of the officer, received a telegram from the War Department that his son had been killed in action on July 19.
This information was communicated to the newspapers and immediately the name of Richard Stockton Bullitt was added to the city's list of war heroes.

Saturday morning relatives of the lieutenant received a letter from him which officer mentioned the fighting and asserted that he was eager to keep in the line. The letter was dated July 29 and the second July 29.

In the letters Lieutenant Bullitt said he was well and his regiment was winning glory for Pennsylvania.

VICTORY IN 1919, MARCH PROMISES

By the United Press
Washington, Aug. 19.—Eighty divisions of France under the new man-power bill can end the war successfully in 1919, Chief of Staff March told the House Military Committee. March's statement was the result of questions by members. He declared that the large American force could break the German lines wherever they wished.

He emphasized, however, that the program outlined by the War Department calling for eighty divisions in France and eighteen in this country by June was absolutely necessary to a successful prosecution of the war.

March also said that the American army in France and here at the present time numbers 3,012,122, including 277,564 drafted men to be called during August. The total in the army under the new man-power bill will be about 4,800,000 men, March said.

TEUTONS OCCUPY 2 RUSSIAN CITIES

By the United Press
Zurich, Aug. 19.—A German army is occupying Vitebsk and Smolensk, with the approval of the Bolsheviks, a Warsaw dispatch declared today.

Smolensk is on the Dnieper River, 250 miles west and south of Moscow.
Vitebsk is seventy-five miles west and north of Smolensk, on the Duna River.
Both are important.

The capture was reported as the chief of the German secret police in Warsaw, but the attempt failed, according to a dispatch from that city received today.
A German patrol killed two of the assassins, but the rest escaped.

Infantry and cavalry are patrolling the streets. Many arrests have been made in the vicinity of the attack.

BOMB FOR POLICE HEAD

By the United Press
Washington, Aug. 19.—Three special trains carrying 800 German soldiers, wearing Russian uniforms, and the German embassy staff, have left Moscow for Petrograd, according to cables reaching the State Department today.

The German staff, which includes the ambassador, arrived in Petrograd on the same day. Unusual military and police measures were taken in Petrograd in preparation for their arrival.
The Bolsheviks are reported to be on the warship Aurora, in the roadstead of Kronstadt, prepared to sail for Germany in case of a successful uprising against them.

FRENCH DRIVE ENEMY LINE BACK ON TEN-MILE FRONT BETWEEN OISE AND AISNE

PERSECUTED RUSSIANS
FLOCK TO MURMANSK

First Story of New Regime Tells of Bolshevik Cruelties.
Allied Troops Speed to Siberia

By ARTHUR E. COPPING
Special Cable to Evening Public Ledger
Copyright, 1918, by New York Times Co.
Murmansk, Aug. 5 (delayed).
At this war-made "open" northern port, where the sun goes on shining and flowers go on growing and birds go on singing all night long, we are in a protected zone of order and safety and know of the Russian revolution only by hearsay. Yet we know and hear of nothing else.

For this is the haven whither come Russian refugees and refugees of half a dozen other nationalities. There are troops and trainloads of them occupying railway sidings for days and weeks, and the outstanding word in their vocabulary is Bolshevik, thieving Bolshevik. Also are there large wooden houses full of refugees, houses specially built with grouped tiers of shelves for beds.

Some have been for three months and more painfully working their way by short stages and with countless long delays from mid or southern Russia. In their ranks babies are born and old men die, and still they drift across the blurred geography of a stricken world. If God be willing and the Allies continue kind, and the last skirt or pair of trousers still holds out, they intend some day to reach eastern Europe. Meanwhile their talk is of the Bolsheviks, the murderous Bolsheviks.

Petrograd Professor's Tale In one group an ex-professor of Petrograd University, who in his attitude would not be denied admission to the East End casual ward, was reviewing the dark chapters in Russia's history since her serfs were liberated.
The secret police, the nihilist, the war, Rasputin, and now the darkest chapter of all, the Bolshevik, the awful, absurd Bolshevik. His boy came up to borrow a pencil.

"My son," said the professor, when the lad was gone, "had a playmate in Petrograd and they were together in the street. The other lad was doing nothing, but he wore some sort of a hat."

BRITISH STEAMER SINKS SUB OFF NANTUCKET

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Aug. 19.—Members of the crew of a British steamship which arrived here today believe they gave a U-boat its death wound in a battle about three hundred miles northwest of Nantucket. The submarine fired two torpedoes at the steamship, but both missed. Then twenty shots were fired from the steamship. One is thought to have scored a clean hit, as flames were seen bursting from the port side of the U-boat and it submerged suddenly a few minutes afterward.

FRENCH CAPTURE CARLEPONT HEIGHTS AND TOWN

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Aug. 19.—The French Army yesterday took the heights dominating Carle-ponton plain, to the south of Noyon. They also captured the town of Carleponton, and the village of Carleponton. The French also captured the village of Carleponton.

FRENCH PRAISE AMERICANS' SKILL

Report Tells of Fine Initiative and Imagination in Fishes Fight

By EDWIN L. JAMES
Special Cable to Evening Public Ledger
Copyright, 1918, by New York Times Co.
With the American Army in France, Aug. 19.

The achievement of the American divisions which, after driving the Germans back twelve miles, captured Fismes, has been made the subject of a report to the French quarter general by the French army in which the Americans fought. The censor does not permit me to name this division, although by this time its identity doubtless is well known in America, and certainly is known to the Germans. The report said:

"Compelled to make a general retreat as a result of our counter-offensive on July 18, the Germans attempted to take positions on the Oureq and fought stubbornly on the heights dominating this river. They were compelled, however, to give way under the repeated blows of the Allies, and then, from July 30 on, the enemy commenced a new retreat in the direction of Fismes. The French dislocated the German forces on Hill 220, northeast of Serisy, he had met a strong advance on the part of the American units, who were fresh and energetic. They were prepared to descend the slopes of Roncheres, while on their right the French were advancing through Muellere Woods.

What the Americans Did

"It was the movement of the American division, which advanced from Roncheres to Fismes, progressing parallel to the river, that was the key to the success. The Americans were compelled to give way under the repeated blows of the Allies, and then, from July 30 on, the enemy commenced a new retreat in the direction of Fismes. The French dislocated the German forces on Hill 220, northeast of Serisy, he had met
