U-RAIDER SUNK BY STEAMSHIP, NAVY REPORTS
Captain Ramm Submarine Off Virginia Coast—Stove in Port Side
By the Associated Press
Washington, Aug. 20. The Navy Department announced today that the captain of an American steamship had reported that his vessel rammed and probably sunk a submarine about 9:20 p. m. on August 17 near Winter Quarter Shoal, off the northern Virginia coast. The captain stated the submarine was struck on her port bow, bringing her alongside.
The submarine crew hailed in strong German accents saying they were friends, the captain said, but he replied they were no friends of his. He kept on his course, he said. The steamship is now in port, with a badly damaged bow and a quantity of water in her hold. The captain thinks he sank the submarine.
