WRITES OF CAPTURE OF WOMEN GUNNERS

Philadelphian, in 109th Battalion, Tells Brother Two Were Taken

The capture of two women machine gunners dressed in men's clothes is mentioned in a letter from Otto Korn, Company B, 109th Machine Gun Battalion, to his brother, Sidney Korn, 4919 North Hutchinson street.

Korn went over with the old Third Regiment last May.

His letter follows: "Just a few lines to you now that we are back on rest for a few days. Believe me we need a rest. Last week we were so busy fighting that we only had about six meals and three nights sleep. I have been lucky so far, as I have not been knocked off the map yet. We are doing good work. The night before last we took five hundred Germans and marched them in. We also got two women dressed in men's clothes. They were at a machine gun."

"I guess you know it's pretty hot for them now when they are over women. I think the war will be over by Christmas. That is the rumor over here."

"We only get one or two meals a day over here. We could get more if they can't get the meals up to us regularly because the roads are being shelled heavily."
