The Young Lady Across the Way

I WANTED TO GO TO A BANQUET WITH JIM CHANNON AND D. MERRIAM AND HERE THIS SUIT IS ALL CHEWED UP BY THE MOTHS - I TOLD HER TO HAVE IT CLEANED BEFORE SHE HUNG IT UP

IT'S ALL LULL OF HOLES - SHE TAKES GOOD CARE OF HER OWN CLOTHES - HANGS 'EM UP IN BIG MOTH BAGS. SHE BOUGHT A WHISK BROOM WHEN WE WERE MARRIED AND SHE HASN'T KNOCKED A WHISKER OUT OF IT YET. I THINK SHE STUCK SUGAR IN THE POCKETS INSTEAD OF MOTH BALLS

I SPILLED A LITTLE LIQUID REFRESHMENT ON IT THE NIGHT I WENT TO THE CLAWS CLUB WITH AL LOWENTHAL, I SEE THEY PICKED THEIR SPOTS ALL RIGHT - THEY KNOW WHAT THEY WANT - THEY GOT EVERYTHING FROM CHAMPAGNE TO CREME DE MENTHE AND MY WEDDING SUIT TOO -

NOW IF THOSE MOTHS WOULD JUST CRAWL AROUND AND FIND THAT MARRIAGE LICENSE AND EAT THAT UP THEY CAN SQUARE THEMSELVES WITH ME

The young lady across the way says the beginning of the end will come when Germany has used up all her reserves and has nothing left but her regular troops.

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

My conscience! You folks chatter more'n a cage o' monkeys in a peanut store! How ya spect a person to read his paper?

Daddy, the kitchen is nice and clean and warm, and there's a big, easy rocking chair with a soft cushion in it out there

EXEMPT

Very Surprised

Tommy (who is getting out)—Here take my place, laddie, Cuthbert—Sorry, old chap, I'm exempt.

Elevating the Stage

With joy we had this picture made And now the joke has been mis-laid.

Light and harmony.

NO HANDS LAND

THE SAILORS ARE WEARIN' SHIELDS TO KEEP FROM GETTING SHOT; HOW WILL WE KEEP THE HUNS FROM GETTING HIT? LEAVE

Doubtless

—Cornell Widow.

"Do the common soldiers travel to the front in autos?"

"No, but they go in private cars."

BROAD AND CHESTNUT By BUNNI

I've always One dear good old friend With whom I care to walk But Silently we stroll along Without a bit of talk Sometimes However I confess My friend Don't smell quite sweet But Just the same To Have him round Is Always A Great treat!
