Sketches of Heroes

Private Alfred D. Harmer, 446 North Saiford street, who enlisted and went to Camp Meade last April, died of injuries suffered in an automobile accident one day after his arrival in France, according to a letter received by his mother.

Mrs. James Harmer. He died July 18.

How quickly and unexpectedly death came to Harmer is shown by the fact that in the mail with the death news letter came one from the soldier in which he said he was safe and well. Mrs. Harmer read this and then opened the other message. It was from her son's nurse and said he was dead. She gave no details of the fatal accident. Harmer was twenty-three years old. unmarried, and lived with his parents before his enlistment. He was employed as a surgical instrument maker in a plant near Wayne Junction. At Camp

Meade he was made an automobile driver and on July 7 he sailed for Sergeant James L. Stork, reported to have died of disease on August 14, dated a letter he wrote to a friend in this city August 16, saccording to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Stork, 1214 Parrish street. The letter told of his good health at that time. Washington, however, has confirmed the report that he died in France two days before the date on the letter.

He was a drafted man from Local Board No. 8, at Tenth and Buttonwood streets, and left for Camp Meade in October of last year. He was made a Corporal soon afterward, and last June was appointed a sergeant. He sailed for France July 18 with Company B. 311th machine gunners. He was twenty-two years old.

Stork attended the Central High School for a year and one-half and then entered the Philadelphia Trade School, graduating from there in 1912. Before he entered the army he was employed as a shipper by the Warner Chemical Com-

Sergeant Stork's brother, Frank, twenty-five years old, is in the United States navy. The last heard from him by his father was a year ago, when the sailor was laying mines in the North Sea.

Private William Dewey Oxley, Company M, 110th Infantry, killed in action August 2, was the first Tacony soldier to be killed in the war. He was a graduate of the Disston School and was a machinist at the Disston Saw Works before he enlisted. He was nineteen years old and lived with his sister, Mrs. John Small, 2350 Unruh street, Tacony, While his father was attending a Liberty Sing the official notification of his death ar-rived and his father was notified. Private. William Erdwein, Company

H. Eighteenth Infantry, was killed in action July 20, according to a telegram from the War Department to his parents, the live at 4040 North Reese street. A letter dated the day of his death was received by his parents. In it he stated that he was well. Erdwein, who was twenty-four years old, was a paper-hanger before he became a soldier. He was dusted last November.

Private Michael Bilze, Company G. 327th Infantry, whose home was at 216 Tasker street, was one of the numerous Polish young men who espoused Amer-ica's cause in this war. He made his home with his married sister. Mrs. Theresa Loritus, of the address mentioned. His Young nephew, who adored his soldier uncle, was grief-stricken when the news came on August 27 that Private Bilze had been drowned in France on August 18. Bilze was twenty-seven years old. He went to camp on October 6 last, and sailed for France late in April.

Joseph Rubin, 852 North Marshall street, enlisted in June, 1917, in the Fourth Infantry, Company B. He received his training at Gettysburg and sailed for France in April, 1918. He was reported wounded in action on July 4. Last week a letter was received from blin deted August 2 in which he says he him dated August 2, in which he says he is in the best of health and makes no mention of his injury. Rubin is eighteen years old and at the time of his enlistment was employed in the grocery store of his father at the Marshall street

Private George Bauman, reported missing in action, is the author of a letter received last week by his mother, in which he stated that he was in the big drive of July 30 and he would, 2 be home very soon." His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bauman, resides at 2532 South Front street, the soldier's family having moved from 124 Ritner street

Bauman, who is twenty-one years old, enlisted September 10, 1917, and was detailed with Company D of the 110th Infantry. After training at Camp Hancock, the regiment was sent abroad in May. Before he enlisted, Bauman was employed by the Franklin Sugar Refining Company.

Private Joseph E. McMahon is twenty-four years old, and enlisted in August, 1917. Although he was reported severely wounded on July 19, a letter received Mahon, of 4689 Wilde street, Manayunk, stated that he was recovering from a slight wound. The letter was dated ten duys after he was supposed to have been badly hurt. He has three brothers days after he was supposed to have been badly hurt. He has three brothers in the service; one is in France, another is in the navy and the third is in a training camp Private John Bougi, reported as wounded, is twenty-five years old and has a wife and child living in Poland of him.

Private John A. Alper, listed as missing in action, has no home at 423 Wharton street, the address given for him in the official report. The family is said to have moved to South Sixth street.

We Are Fur Merchants—Not Fur Speculators!

The speculator who owns merchandise that is advancing in cost holds it for a higher price. Every fur garment in our store is worth considerably more than we have it marked, and will increase in value as the season advances. For fur values, like other staples, are going up, but we repeat that we are merchants, not speculators, and as our profit lies in volume of sales and attracting new patrons, particularly during a usual dull month, we exerted every effort in our power to make this sale most worthy of your patronage.
