Unsatisfactory and Unacceptable," Declare Committees in Behalf of Owners

New York, Sept. 6. Acceptance by the railroads of the Government and the railroads, as pro-posed by Director General McAdoo, was today unanimously recommended by the railway executives' advisory committee, representing eighty-two railroads, with 12 per cent of the total mileage of the United States. Thomas deWilt Cuyler, of Philadel-phia, chairman of the committee, which the there today, said in his report: "In the opinion of this committee, en-lightened self-interest and the dictates of patriotism alike require the accept ance of the proposed contract, and the committee without doubt or hesitation so advises." All the special committees of the reference of the proposed contract, and the set set of the special committees of the reference of the proposed contract, and the set set of the proposed contract, and the committee without doubt or hesitation so

All the special committees of the Na-

donal Association of Owners of Rail-road Securities, in a joint meeting here, decided that the Federal contract with decided that the Federal contract with the railroads, as announced in Wash-ington, still is "unsatisfactory and un-acceptable," and called a meeting of the association's financial committee of seventy, to be held in New York next Wednesday, to determine its future ac-tion.

Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the association, issued a statement outlining three objections to the contract. The first, he said, is that the railroads, in advance of any knowledge of the extent to which their operations are to be abandoned, or their business and traffic diverted, are required to accept
