

WHEN IT COMES TO MOTORTRUCKS FOR WAR SERVICE, YOU SPELL ALLENTOWN WITH CAPITALS

IF MOTORTRUCKS WILL HELP WIN the war, Allentown can be said to have done its bit. The photograph shows thousands of "lorries" ready for delivery at a factory in the upstate city.

A NICHE IN OUR OWN Academy of the Fine Arts awaits this picture of Americans parading in Paris July 4, which is being painted for the city of Philadelphia by M. Dupuy, a French artist. Photo from International Film Service

"I JUST LOVE TO GO TO SCHOOL."

"HULLY GEE! WHO SAID SCHOOL?"

SIGNIFYING THE RESUMPTION of classes at the Girls' High School.

REPELLING A GERMAN landing party, even though theoretical, reveals the alertness of the naval coast defense reserves at Wissahickon Barracks.