

THE WORK OF WAR ON MANY FIELDS GOES ON WITH MEN OF MANY LANDS ENGAGING

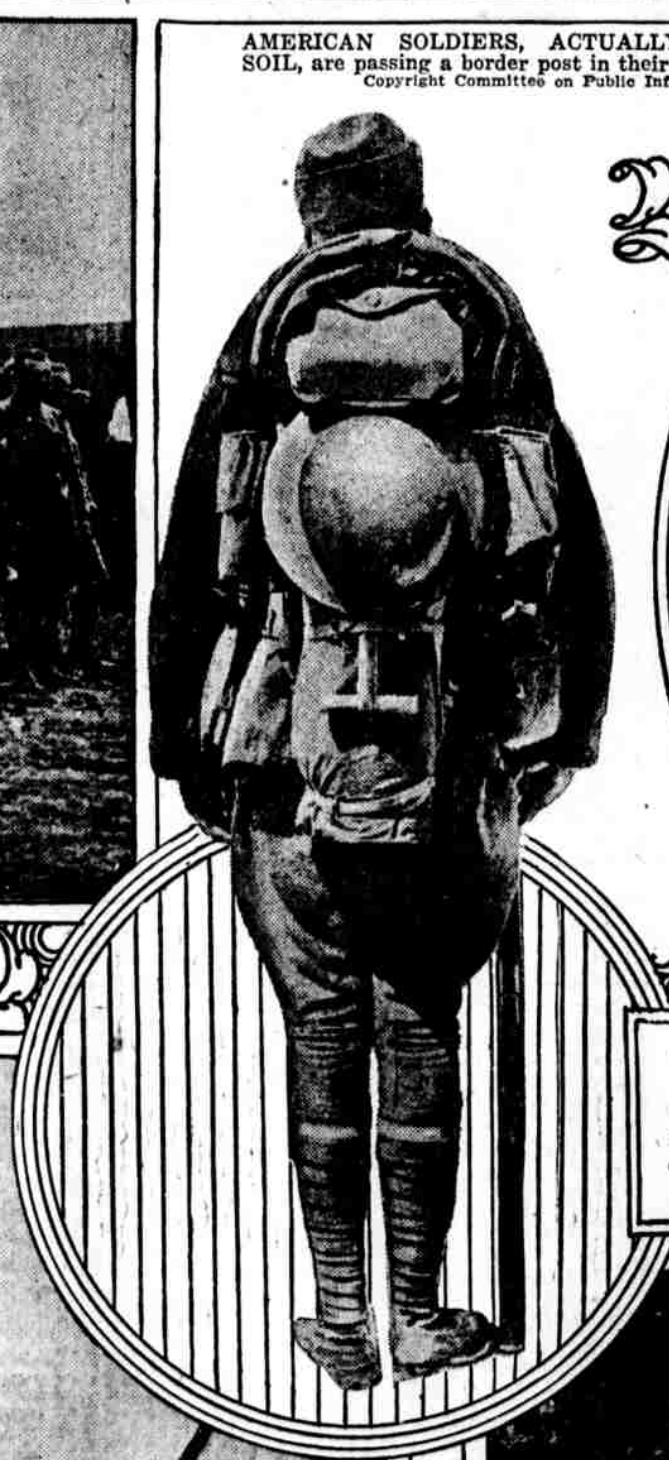

FRIEND AND FOE ALIKE RECEIVE SURGICAL TREATMENT in this French village, where wounded German prisoners lie beside their injured Canadian captors.
Canadian Official Photograph. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS, ACTUALLY ON GERMAN SOIL, are passing a border post in their march "to Berlin."
Copyright Committee on Public Information.

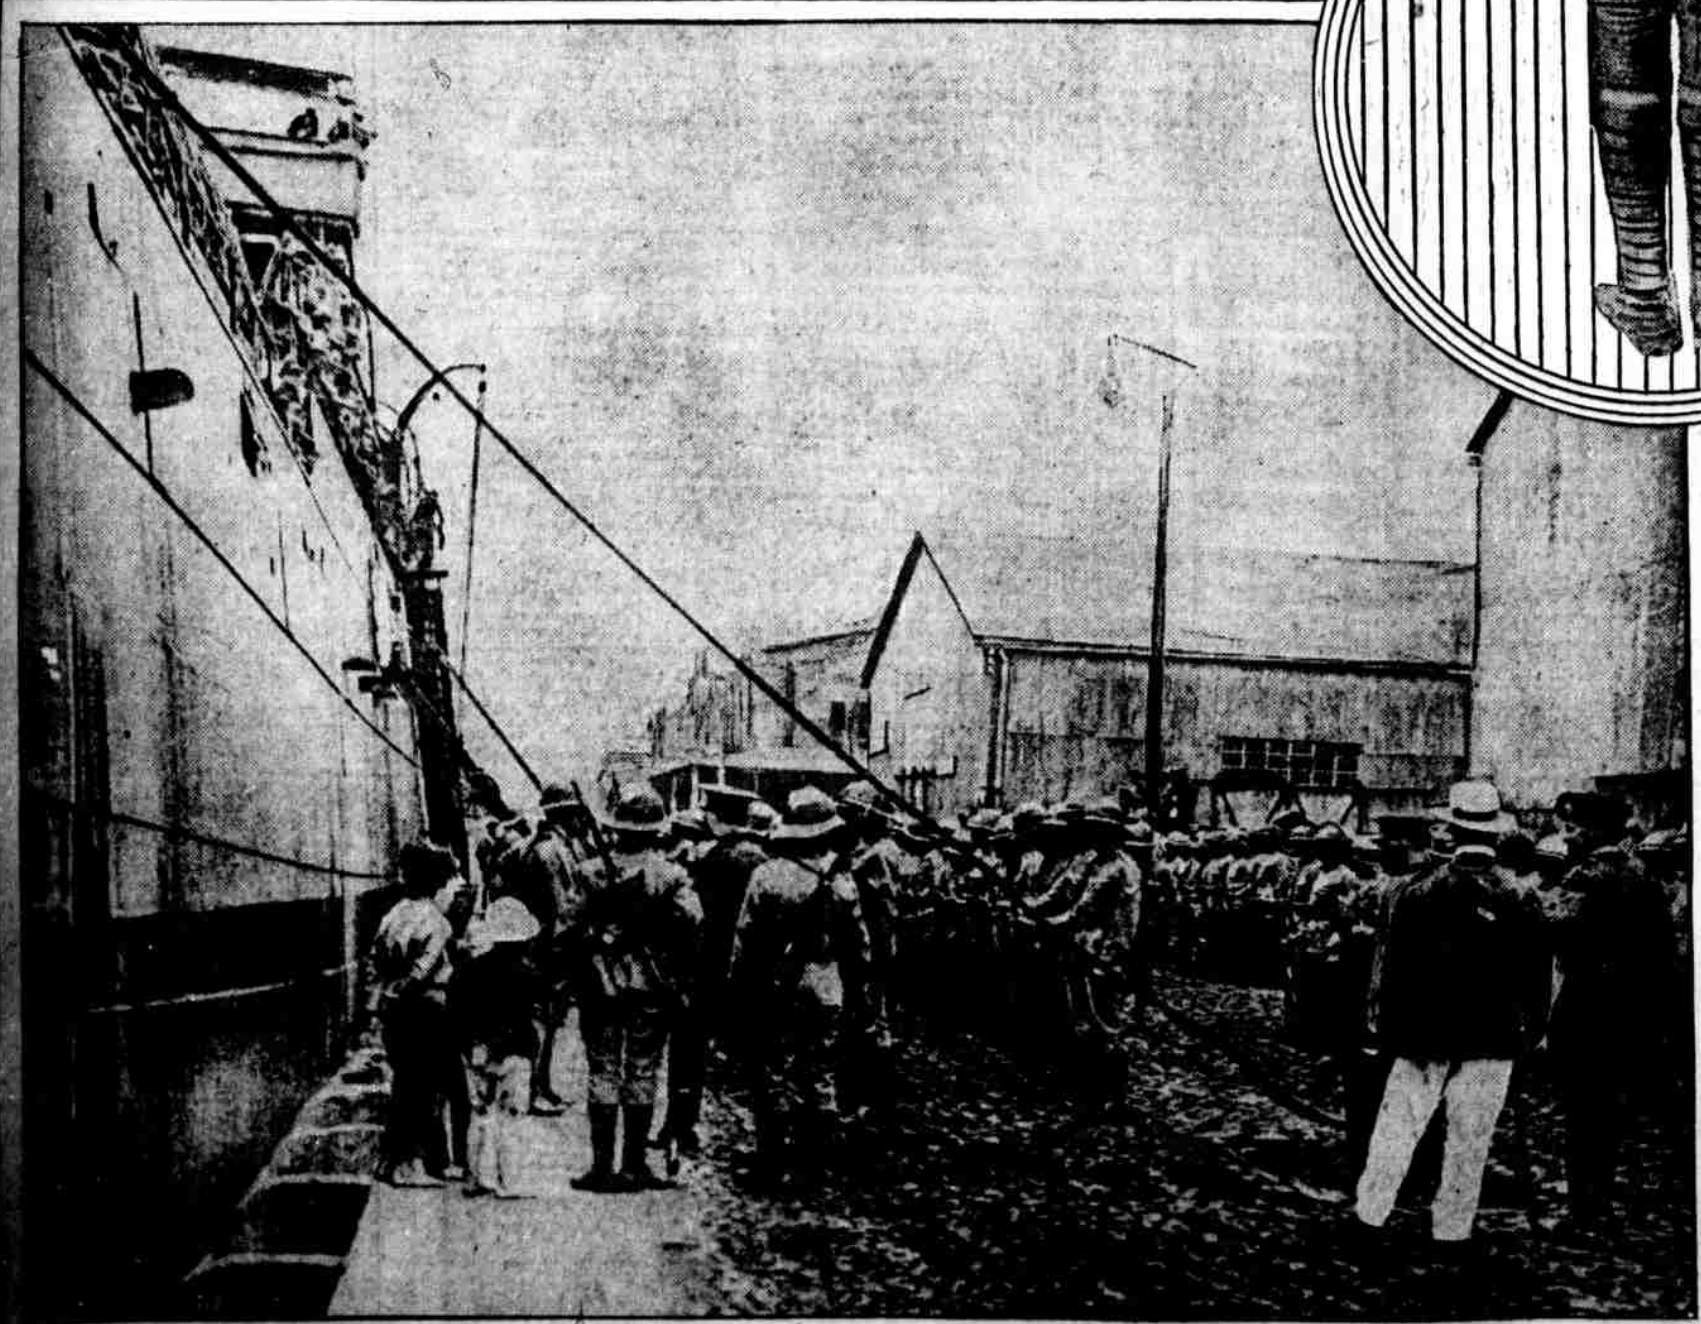

CZECHO-SLOVAK TROOPS ATTENDING MASS before going into battle with the Bolsheviki forces at Nicolosk-Ugsooriusk.
Copyright Underwood & Underwood.

UNITED STATES "DOUGHBOY" EQUIPPED FOR GOING "OVER THE TOP"
Copyright Committee on Public Information.

BRITAIN'S QUEEN CHATTING with a crippled "Tommy" at Queen Mary's Hospital and Workshop for Disabled Soldiers at Brighton, England.
Copyright Western Newspaper Union.

BRITISH TROOPS DISEMBARKING AT VLADIVOSTOK TO JOIN THE ALLIED CAMPAIGN which is aimed to drive the Bolsheviki from that far-off country and to restore order and establish government of permanent form in that much-disrupted land of the snows and frequent revolution.
Copyright Underwood & Underwood.

VIRGINIA WOMEN TO THE NUMBER OF 200, headed by Mrs. Westmoreland Davis are filling silk bags with powder in a munition plant near Richmond, as members of the Women's Munition Reserve. Left to right appear Mrs. Davis, Miss Smith and Mrs. James E. Cannon, wife of Senator Cannon, in their working clothes.
Copyright International Film Service.