SUN SHIP GIRLS ASK

SOLDIERS TO DANCE

Young Women Tire of Seeing Chester Plant Rivals Admired

The Sun ship girls have decided really to hobnob with the soldiers from Virginia. They've been doing it heretofore on a very limited scale, letting the Chester ship girls in the same town walk with the boys in khaki. Now the Sun ship office beauties are chester, cities will have a herd time.

Chester girls will have a hard time holding their own guards that night if the Sun girls' plans work out to suit them. A soldier likes a new face, especially if it's a pretty one, and there'll be lots of new game at this shindig."

The affair will come off at the Chester Armory Saturday evening Sectember 28

Armory Saturday evening, September 28. It's been "waltz me around again, Wil-He" there ever since the shipyards went under military guard. Chester girls in and out of the shipyards have had the time of their lives, and many soldiers' smiles with it. The men who live to love and fight, too, will fight the harder when they think of the Chester girls they left Captain Howard Jamison will be there and also Bugler Slicer in their spickest and spannest. The latter will oblige with some of his own southern melodies A plane is to be hauled over from the shipyard office because every performer likes his own plano best and can get better music out of it.

A minstrel show will be put on during the intermission by the Sun ship's own talent. J. Leonard Mason, head of the service department, will be master of ceremonies. Joe Scatchard, William A. Hirst and C. S. Walter will assist Mason The girls' committee will assist Mason.
The girls' committee will be composed of

FOREMAN A PHILOSOPHER

Best Producer Works With Least Effort. He Says

There's a foreman down at Hog Island who goes by the every day name of Smith, who is a mighty producer. In fact, his men are leading in production at that shipyard. Smith is a natural born handler of men. He knows them, cultivates their friendship, humors them, gives them—when they deserve it, but gets the work out of them. Incidentally, this man Smith is a philosopher. Here are a few conclusions he has drawn from life:

"The best producer I have does his work the easiest."

"What keeps me on the jump all the time is getting my work to the men."

"If there is any hold-up in my work I consider it my own fault."

"The work my men are doing today I did long ago."

"I've found out that accidents are most always somebody's failure to do his job."

"My idea is that a foreman is a fore."

"My idea is that a foreman is a fore-man—a man who is before—that is ahead of his men in the work to be done."

done."
I tell my men when they want to loaf to go and do it and get it over with."
If I couldn't get the jumps on my job and be happy doing it life wouldn't be worth much."

BATTALION SERGEANT KANE, of the Hox Island watch, has been commissioned first licutenant in the ordnauce department, U.S. A., and assigned to Camp Raritan, N. J., for training.

THE WAR SAVINGS STAMP DRIVE begin at the Pusey & Jones Wilmington yard on June 24 is going as strong there today as at the besiming. G. I. Coppase, who handles the production department, has shown that he also can produce in selling stamps for Uncle Sam. His assistant, H. G. McDowell, has been a close second throughout the exmpaign. Miss G. C. Enos, office manager, hands out the stamps and, of course, that has something to do with their popularity. There are stamp agencies in the yard in charge of F. W. Harper, C. A. Mellinger and Morris Hufnell.

THE PUSEY & JONES CARNIVAL at Glaucester will end tonight. It has been liberally patronized.

The NEW EMPLOYMENT BUILDING at the Puscy & Jones Gloucester plant has among its features private rooms where foremen can have personal talks with applicants before putting them on the payroli. This innovation is depended on to save a great deal of trouble and money. The employment department, headed by H. V. Mason, has begun to move in.

H. T. MILLER, FOREMAN of the pipe chop at the New Jersey yard, Gloucester, has been appointed lieutenant of the fire department in that yard. If long legs count in a sprint, Lieutenant Miller should always be first at a blaze, and if it happens at night when he's asieep he'll be there just the same, he says.

L. BRYAN, HALL'S ASSISTANT in the Pusey & Jones boiler and light plate shep, has a story about three wells. Well, let him teell it.

ABOUT THERTY-TWO YEARS AGO Char-he Shaw and Tom Magann worked side by side in the light plate shop at Carr & Smith's Shipyard at Gloucester. After all these years apart they have come together again in the same place.

VALROY BARRETTA, of the Pusey & Janes Gloucester office, leaves today to go back to his studies at the University of Michigan.

MUSTACHES HAVE COME BACK at the Merchant Shipyard. Six of them were counted there and more are on the way-slowly and more or less uncertain. The six who have decorated thusly are fraternizing considerably and exchanging views on curling and oiling the "misplaced eyebrow." BAIR—13

THERE IS A CHAP IN the hull-drawing room at the Merchant yard who sings of his love every day in the office until the others there have about decided to request him politely, yet firmly, to wait until eventide and sing it to his sire.

MISS MELISSA BORST, of Washington D. C., is visiting her sister, wife of Lieu-tenant E. E. Roberts, of the Merchant ship yard guard.

W. P. PARR. OF THE PRODUCTION de partment. Merchant shippard, is being men loned with the heroes in the first-line genches at the marriage license bureau.

TOU WOULDN'T THINK a hair cut could cause such a stir as that made by some Harriman tonsorialist upon Assistant Foreman Anderson's "crowning giery."

J. McHERMOTT AND FRED MANTE, both of the electrical department, Merchant yard, leave for Camp Dix next week, each with a watch presented by his co-workers.

NORMAN C. MILLER, supervisor of the fraining school at the Morchant yard, brought company with him when he re-turned from his vacation. She is Mrs. Mil-ler, formerly Miss Virginia Townsend Tudor, of Harrisburg.
