Not the Only One

-The Bystander. The Little 'Un—Blimy, I'll have five minutes with that sergeant after the war.

The Big 'Un—No bloomin' fear, my lad. You'll be waitin' in a queue.

"What, stale bread again, Thompson?"

Butler—Well. sir, I really don't know what to do with it. It musin't be wasted now, and we can't eat it downstairs.

THE RETORT COURTEOUS

Private Smifkins (to se. who has found a pair of boots in No Man's Land)—What are you going to do with these, sergeant? Wear them? Sergeant (fed up)—No, you blinkin' fool; I'm going to hang 'em on my watch chain.

-The Passing Show. Short-Tempered Person (as the tide splashed over the rock and drenches him)—Confound you, sir! Stop jumping about!

"Let's go for a little spin." "All right, old top." - Cornell Widow.
