"Welfare work" at the shipyards which has been the target of many of the charges of the shipworkers in their effort to have baseball players and pugilists replaced by older men of the yards, will not be abandoned.

The workers must have recreation, officials of the yards say, and the effort to provide them wholesome entertainment will continue.

Meanwhile, the labor leaders back added soccer players to the list of men against whom they have objections. With the coming of the fall season solver teams are being organized to replace baseball, but officials in charge of the welfare work assert that most of the occer players are real shipworkers. Labor leaders say that some of the
