Scene Set for Decision, but Absentees Make Delay Necessary

Washington, Sept. 26. Plans for a vote by the Senate today on the Federal woman suffrage amendment virtually were abandoned in the midst of debate. Chairman Jones, ... the Woman Suffrage Committee, Majority Leader Martin and other leaders of both factions joined in private statements that the resolution would go over until Saturday

While the debate was under way, will crowded galleries awaiting the final test. Chairman Jones made the following statement to a representative of the Associated Press:

"It now appears likely that no vote will be taken today, and that the resojution will go over until next Saturday, when Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, is due to arrive.

Crowds filled the Senate corridors carrying lunches, going to the Capital by 8:30 o'clock. The crush became so Woman's Suffrage Association and the Woman's Nutrage Association and the Woman's Party were opened at 19-30, a half hour ahead of time.
