Republican and Democratic State Organizations Meet in Trenton

WILSON STRIKES KEYNOTE

Governor and Senatorial Candidates Against "Half-Baked World Democracy"

Trenton, Oct. 1.—Republican and Democratic State organizations met here simultaneously shortly before noon today, the former in the headquarters of the Republican Club and the latter party at the Democratic League.

Governor Wilson, who was the keynote speaker, declared the party's attitude toward the war as its "policy."

Senator Cummins attacked "Little Group of Willful Men" who Oppose Measure

Senator Cummins, with unqualified bitterness, attacked a "little group of willful men" who he said would be responsible for the defeat of the measure.

TREADING THE HIGH GROUND

Times, News and Post Unqualifiedly Indorse President's Notable Speech

London, Oct. 1.—London newspapers generally unqualifiedly indorse President Wilson's notable speech in New York introducing the fourth Liberty Loan, praise his lofty ideals and hail him as a wise leader in the Titanic struggle for the triumph of right over brutal might, oppression and tyranny.

The Times says: "It is well to keep clear the high ground which the President is treading from the encroachment of old and irrelevant political controversies in this and other countries."

The News says: "The President's speech is a masterpiece of statesmanship. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship."

Fare to Face With Life's Values

President Swain said in part: "This hour, these happenings, and this service bring us face to face with the exalting values of life and with a contemplation of these standards by which men measure conduct and civilization and by which history awards them praise or blame."

Shirts made of "through and through" Madras (not a printed fabric), in a tip-top assortment of good colorings and patterns.

These shirts would have been fine value at $1.50 before the war—you can judge what they are worth now. We will confidently compare them with any $2.00 shirts elsewhere.

Do you know this man? Height: 6 ft. 1 inch Weight: 145 lbs. Face: Thin Features: Prominent Description: When last seen was on his way to hospital. Used to weigh 185, had florid complexion, good appetite and enthusiasm for work. Six months ago began to have irregular bowel movements. Took pills. Lost weight—still irregular. Took salts—violent results. Had medical examination: doctor diagnosed case as self-poisoning, due to clogged, decaying, food-waste in large intestine; said pills and purges had weakened the intestinal muscles so they would not function. Man protested violently that he was not sick. Doctor replied that he had been sick since first bowel irregularity. Prescribed complete rest and the Nujol Treatment. Said if he had cultivated regular habits with Nujol he would have had no trouble—now, however, he was an easy mark for the poisoning he was allowing in his own body.

REWARD: For restoration of this man to regularity, Nature offers reward of health, and return to normal weight and keenness.

If you are the man, apply at the nearest drug store for one bottle of
