WANAMAKER'S

An Unusual Sale of $25,000 Worth of Unique and Exquisite

A Commonplace Store Is All Right for Those Who Like It

This Store will never be satisfied with an "Oh, it is good enough, and it suits us who manage it."

Times have changed, and we must change with them or be left behind.

To be useful we must be of the first to take on every good thing, that the people may see all the fashions and fabrics that the best makers are bringing out. It is the only kind of useful storekeeping we care for to be able to show not only conservative fashions, but the latest fashions, that our people may see and be informed of what is going on in the world.

Some people appear to advertise recklessly, being either misinformed or careless about statements, giving untrue impressions.

We have had our foreign offices open in London and Paris ever since they were established, nearly forty years ago, when there were no other strictly retail stores, either in New York or Philadelphia, having foreign offices there, so far as we know.

Yours for the Liberty Loan,

Furniture at Half Price

TYE HAVE secured a most remarkable new purchase of finely wrought and handsomely decorated furniture, comprising about 750 individual pieces for all rooms, and we are able to offer the entire collection for half the regular prices.

In this assemblage the art of furniture lacquering and decoration reaches an exceedingly high standard.

The work has been done mostly by Oriental artists, either in this country or in the East. Entire parts were brought from China and embodied in some of these pieces. This is true of the elaborately carved and decorated doors of some wonderful cabinets.

The carvings on these are wrought out into wonderful detail and lighted up with just a sufficiency of color. These cabinets are the star feature of the assemblage, artistically speaking. They are very captivating examples of Oriental conception of design and ornament.

Gold is freely used over the black lacquer in working out the theme.

In addition to the pieces in Oriental lacquer there is an attractive choice of enameled and decorated furniture of a very dainty kind.

In the assortment will be found nests of tables, drop-leaf tables, wall-cabinets, odd chairs, mirrors and console tables, all of which we took over from a very skilled and clever cabinet worker for selling at half the regular rates.

It is a very wonderful collection, bringing a rare opportunity to pick up at half price an exquisite and unique piece of furniture that will fit in anywhere.

Embroidered Fabrics Make the Finer Gowns

Tunics with either self-color embroidery or black on navy blue are shown on so many of the foremost model gowns.

Women who have their own modistes or who make their own gowns will be interested in this showing of embroidered chiffons, serges and crepes. Prices are $4, $4.50, $5 and $6

SCARCELY anybody acquainted with conditions in the Oriental rug market would think it possible for any store today to present such a magnificent collection of pieces as are offered in this remarkable sale.

There are rugs here from practically all the principal weaving districts of the East, from Pekin to the shores of the Red Sea; which means that all the most desirable weaves will be found in the assortment. The fact seems undeniable that it would be going on a fool's errand for anybody to try to find another such show of Oriental rugs in this locality. Those who have a right to know say that there is nothing to compare with it in this country.

The exhibition has come into existence not by wishing it, but by

We have been getting ready for it for a long while.

It is a glorious sight to look at, here on the Seventh Floor, central section-Persian, Caucasian and Chinese weaves of every imaginable size clothe the whole spacious area in color and beauty.
