

OVER THE SEA AND AT HOME THE CAMERA PICTURES THE LIVE NEWS EVENTS OF THE DAY

ALBERT OF BELGIUM in his trench helmet. The latest photograph of Belgium's warrior King. At the head of his troops he is forcing the Huns back across the country they have so unmercifully ravaged.
Belgian Official U. S. A. Photo. © Western Newspaper Union

UNIQUE PHOTOGRAPH BY AN AMATEUR snapped aboard a vessel the moment the ship was struck by an enemy's submarine torpedo. Committee on Public Information will not permit the printing of any further details about this remarkable picture.
Underwood & Underwood

KING ALBERT AND QUEEN ELIZABETH of Belgium viewing the debris of a German Gotha which was shot down by Belgian gunners on the Western front.
Belgian U. S. A. Official Photograph. Underwood & Underwood

TELEPHONE mouthpieces covered with a disinfectant gauze guard during epidemic days.

BOY SCOUTS SERVING AS MESSENGERS at the Liberty Loan headquarters, and Field Executive Getz, who has the boys in charge.

MRS. J. W. FRANCE, head of Czecho-Slovak Committee of South Philadelphia Women's Liberty Loan Committee, sells a bond to a toiler.

MOTORCYCLES ARE USED in transporting carrier pigeons back and forth, along the battlefield by British Tommies.
Kadel & Herbert