

WILSON THE ROCK SHOW TREACHERY OF ALLIED UNITY IN PEACE PLOT

All Peoples of Entente Trust Him to Guard Their Interests

CONFLICTING POLICIES ATTEMPT TO MOLLIFY

Party of Vengeance Opposed by More Pacifist Group of Socialists

By CHARLES H. GRASLEY. Special Cable to Evening Public Ledger. Copyright, 1918, by New York Times Co. Paris, Oct. 11.—No armistice. No compromise. No circumlocution. No subterfuge to save the face of Germany. No twilight zone between what they mean and what we mean. By a process of elimination, these conclusions have been arrived at by the controlling body of sentiment in Europe.

Left More Numerous. Of these two extremes the Left is far more numerous. Possibly it includes the larger half of the Socialist party. Theoretically, it should be enough to dictate the policy to be pursued at this time, as it could have at any time in the past. For months it has been building up a policy of no war, war, partly by the strong hold military and political leadership and partly by the American influence. Disinterestedness of American motives, our great resources in soldiers and wealth, and our energy in the use of those resources have held these masses of human beings, upon whom the burden of the war has fallen most heavily, in line for prosecuting the war.

Berlin Plans to Send a Conditional Reply

Continued from Page One. According to their opinion, it is only treating Mr. Wilson to see what he will insist upon.

If this opinion is true, Prince Max will not be able to answer Wilson satisfactorily. He will be unable to agree upon the question of Alsace-Lorraine and Prussian Poland to the terms laid down by the President.

Special Cable to Evening Public Ledger. Copyright, 1918, by New York Times Co. London, Oct. 11.—The conclusion reached here Sunday as to the impossibility of acceding to Germany's request for an armistice with a view to commencing peace negotiations has been greatly strengthened now that the full text of the German formal proposal and of Prince Max's speech in the Reichstag are available.

GERMAN PEACE RAY ENVELOPED BY FOG. By the Associated Press. Basel, Switzerland, Oct. 11.—Commenting on President Wilson's response to the German peace note the Strasbourg Post says: "The ray of peace has not yet disappeared, but it is enveloped in a thick fog. The only hope lies in the fact that our note was not entirely rejected."

MAX PROMISES JUSTICE FOR POLISH KINGDOM

By the Associated Press. Amsterdam, Oct. 11.—Prince Maximilian, the German Imperial Chamberlain, has telegraphed to the Polish Legation in London, assuring that he is firmly resolved to shape the relations between the German Empire and the newly arisen kingdom of Poland in a spirit of justice and understanding of the vital interests on both sides.
