The feather natatorium.

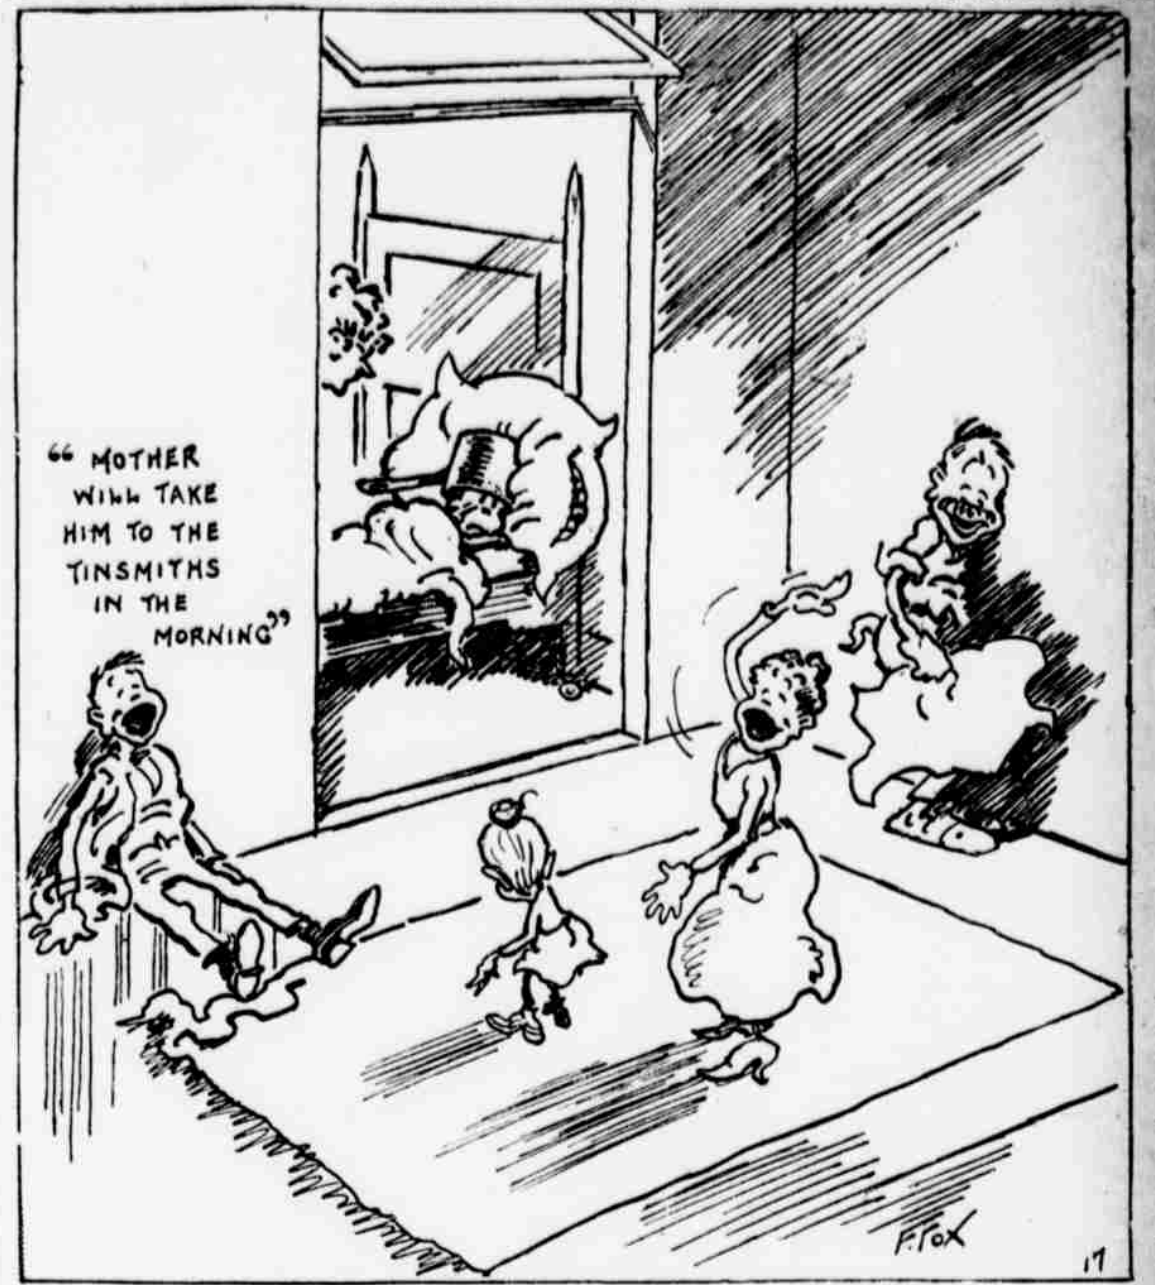

SAFER AT THE FRONT

—Cartoon Magazine. "And just to think that Oscar has gone to France. He actually seemed glad to go to the big war. And after I had tried so hard to please him! Sometimes I'm afraid he thought I was only a poor imitation after all. Oh, dear!"

THE SOLDIER WHO COULDN'T GET HIS TRENCH HELMET OFF

By FONTAINE FOX

Not to Mention Verdun

—San Francisco Chronicle. Crown Prince Ruprecht—'All Prince how did you enjoy dot little trip to Paris?' Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm—'Yah well, France but tell me about your sojourn at dose channel ports.'

Proof

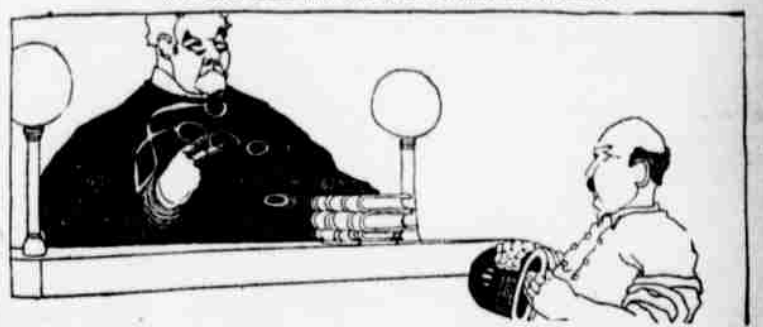

"Do yer love me, 'ker?" "Love yer, 'Liza. I should jest think I does. Why, if yer ever gives me up I'll murder yer. I can't say more'n that, kin I?"

No Change

—The Tattler. First Lady—'ear your 'usband's joined up, but 'e carries on just the same, don't 'e?' Second Lady—'Yus, 'e do, dearie; was than ever.'

MAYBE THE JUDGE CHANGED HIS MIND

Judge—I discharge you this time, but try to keep in better company hereafter. The Misanthrope—Righto, Judge! You won't see me back here again.

A NEW KIND OF CAMOUFLAGE

The Flapper—But, George, I don't understand how you managed to camouflage your battery.

Almost Affectionate

—Cartoon Magazine. "Mr. Sinkins told me he doted on horses, but I don't think its nice of him to be lugging them in public, do you?"

PETRY—It's a Clever Idea If You Have the Nerve

By C. A. VOIGHT

SO THOUGHTFUL

—London Opinion. Tommy (at Red Cross concert)—'What's that man got his eyes shut for while he's singing?' Friend—'Because he can't hear to see us suffer.'
