

SERBIA TWO-THIRDS REDEEMED
Important Towns Wreathed Back
by Advancing Allies

Paris, Oct. 18.—French and Serbian troops, including Montenegros, have captured the important town of Ipek, fifteen miles inside the frontier. It was announced by the French War office today. Additional progress was made north and west of Nish, and the large towns of Novibazar and Mitrovitz were occupied. Fully two-thirds of Serbia has been recovered.

North of Nish Allied troops have reached Kalna, and have occupied the heights south of Jekrinac and Krusevac," said the communique.
"Further to the west French and Greek reached Kursumije and Novibazar, from which the enemy fled."
"On the Montenegrin frontier French cavalry, supported by Serbian mountain troops, attacked Austrian convoys retreating west of Mitrovitz, and captured them, including 3000 wagons and immense quantities of material."
"The same detachment entered Ipek on Sunday and took 600 prisoners, large grain stores and a number of machine guns."

The Suits and Overcoats That Men Need Right Now Are Here in Plenty

Men who buy clothes now should scrutinize them with a more careful eye than they did in former times. The shortage of wool has led to many adulterations and much cotton is entering into the making of men's clothing.

The All-Wool Standard

still waxes at Wanamaker's and every suit and overcoat, no matter what its price, is of pure wool material, perfectly cut and honestly tailored. As the clothing in the Down Stairs Store was contracted for many months ago we now own it at prices that cannot be duplicated on today's market. The saving to you averages 25—which is worth putting in your pocket.

Men's Winter-Weight Suits

are of cassimeres, chevots and worsteds in good, dark mixed colorings and of flannels in navy blue, green and brown. These are waistline suits which young men like, and the more conservative styles which appeal to other men. Prices start at $25 and go to $32.50.

None Too Early for Overcoats

as you have noticed these last cool mornings. A good coat of medium weight is of black or Oxford cloth cut on box lines. It is $29.50.

Heavier coats, ulsters and ulsterettes are $25 to $35.
(Gaitery, Market)

Delightful Hats All at Little Prices

There are smart, trim little felt sailors in navy blue—so many women are wearing them with tailored suits—and their price is but $3.

Small velvet turbans in pretty colors and larger hats with a fluff of ostrich or a bright velvet facing are here by the hundred and there are very few alike. The velvets are of excellent grades and some have the glossy panne finish that is so fashionable. The softness of beaver will also be found in this group. In fact, there seems to be no end of charming hats at

At Least One Separate Skirt Should Hang in Every Woman's Wardrobe

It is needed on so many occasions and seems to fit in when nothing else seems ready to put on. Business women, especially, appreciate the usefulness of a separate skirt.

A lightweight and pretty skirt of silk-finished poplin is gathered below a deep yoke girde which ends in fringed tabs at one side and has a shirred pocket on the other. It is in navy and black, at $5.75.

In Large Sizes

there is an excellent black wool poplin skirt that is cut on plain tailored lines with a gathered back and a belt all around. The vertical pockets are flatly inset and the skirt is plain enough to give an appearance of slenderness to the wearer. In waist sizes 30 to 36 at $8.75.
