

WAR AND WAR WORKERS HOLD COMMANDING PLACE IN PICTORIAL RESUME OF DAY'S HAPPENINGS

French Pictorial Service...

U. S. RAILWAY ENGINEERS' SUPPLY TRAIN of the Twenty-sixth Division in France.

Committee on Public Information

WAITING FOR MORE. Germans prisoners taken in battles of the Aisne arriving at a concentration camp.

DR. W. S. SOLF, State Secretary of the German Foreign Office, who signed Germany's answer to President Wilson's note.

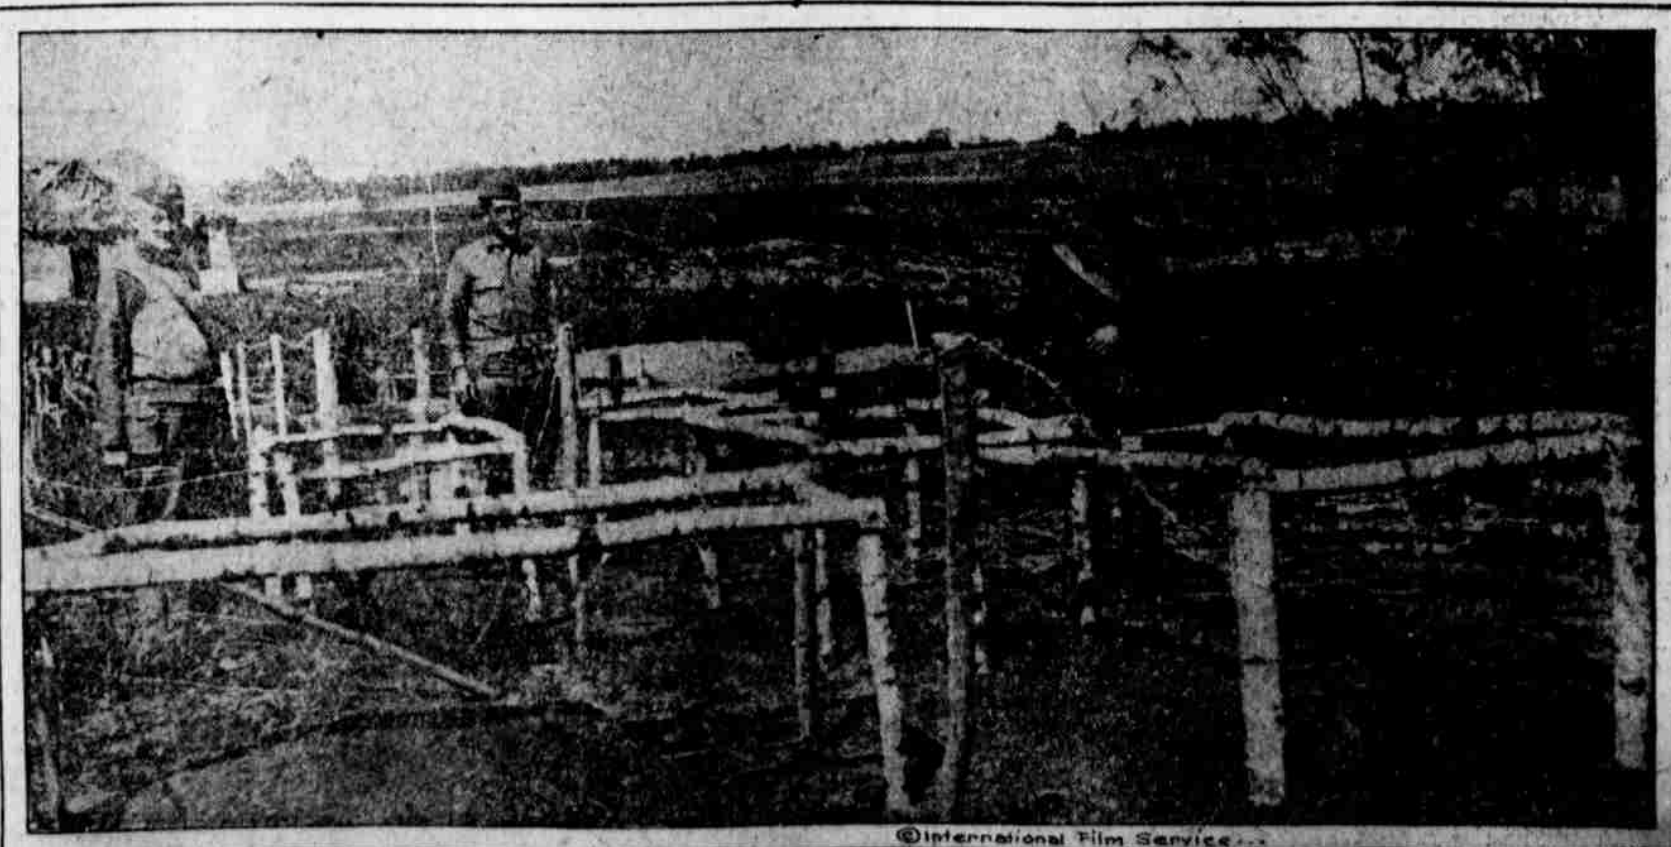

British Official Photograph...@W.N.U.

SENDING THE TRUTH TO THE GERMANS. Allies releasing balloons with truth-bearing messages for Teutons and the French and Belgian civilians still in the grip of the boche.

THE NATTY DARK-BLUE UNIFORM of the girls of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

International Film Service...

"WHERE POPPIES BLOOM." Sacred to the memory of the American Expeditionary Forces are these graves of the men who fell at the victorious fight at St. Mihiel.

Photo by Stewart White

CAROLINE JONES, OF PHILADELPHIA, organizer for the War Work drive of the Eastern Division of the Y. W. C. A., who is traveling through the country for the War Work drive which will be launched in November