A PLEA FOR THE GIRLS WHO The Woman's ARE STRANGERS IN OUR CITY

Thousands of Them Have Come Here to Do War Work and They Get Lonesome-Why Not Help Them to Get Acquainted With Other Young People?

WOVEN in the tapestry of our city WOVEN in the tapestry of our city is a thread about which the majority of people know and think little. Mostly, the stuff of our city is homes. Everybody rushes to them at a o'clock in the evening. The thread I refer to in everything the opposite of home. It is that line of girls and men who have come to our town to work—the strangers in our city.

Do you ever think about them? Of course, a person just naturally does not unless she has been alone in a city at some time or other herself. city at some time or other herself.

There is something in any one who has ever been a stranger in a city that goes out to another stranger always.

You cannot look at the great surging
5 o'clock crowd without wondering just who is going home and just who

A GREAT many of the strangers in our town do what they call "eat around." This means baying a room
