HELD IN SUPPOSED MURDER

B. and O. Fireman Detained in Case of Body Found in Pool Alfred Doss, 1328 South Patton street, was held without bail today for further hearing on a charge of suspicion of murder by Magistrate Baker, at the Fifteenth street and Snyder avenue police station. Doss was arrested following the finding of the body of John Manos in a pool of water at the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad yards, Thirty-sixth and Jackson streets.

Manos was twenty-nine years old. He os was twenty-nine years old. He in the rear of 832 Locust street lived in the rear of $32 Locust street, and was employed as a mechanic by the Baltimore and Ohio Company.

Manos' body was dragged from the pool after Doss had told other employes that he heard a cry that attracted him to the pool, where he found a cap floating on the water. No other evidence was introduced, and there was nothing to show that there had been any difficulty between Doss and Manos. Doss is a fireman, and he was engaged in coaling his engine, he said, when he heard the cry.
