

IN CASUALTIES

Many From Nearby States on List of 470 U. S. Soldiers

NONE DIED IN ACTION

56 Succumb to Their Wounds and 210 Meet Wounds in Battle

Washington, Oct. 23.—Four hundred and seventy names were contained in an army casualty list announced by the War Department today. Many of those who appear on the list's roll of honor are from Pennsylvania and nearby States.

The list is classified as follows: Died of wounds, fifty-six; died of airplane accident, two; died of disease, seventy-three; wounded severely, twenty-six; wounded (degree undetermined), fifty-three; wounded slightly, 131; missing in action, sixty-three; prisoners, three. The total number of casualties to date:

Killed in action (including 293 at sea) 10,765
 Died of wounds 506
 Died of disease 705
 Died of airplane accidents 2
 Died of accidents and other causes 1153
 Wounded in action 32,479
 Missing in action (including prisoners) 6119

Officers' List

Died From Wounds Received in Action
COLONEL—Edward Sigetso, Greenville, Pa.
LIEUTENANT—Ralph Oldham, Longleaf, La.
Died of Disease
MAJOR—Edgar M. Frahm, Louisville, Ky.
CAPTAIN—George R. Hardesty, Bayona, Ind.
LIEUTENANT—Austin I. Hobbs, Vandalia, Ill.
Wounded Severely
LIEUTENANT—Lawrence Roberts, Wilkesboro, Del.
Wounded Slightly in Action
MAJOR—Alvan C. Sandford, Middleville, Ga.
LIEUTENANTS—William Charles Cooper, Radcliffe, Pa.; Albert Edward Hahn, Grant Rapids, Mich.; Joseph Jenkins, Jackson, Ind.; Philip Edward Kaufman, Whitewater, Wis.; James Harold Hahn, Elmira, N. Y.; Carlton A. Brown, Rapid, Mich.; Douglas C. Barry, New York.

Enlisted Men

The following enlisted men from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia appear in today's army list:

PENNSYLVANIA
Died From Wounds Received in Action
SERGEANT—Henry N. Hagner, Youngstown, Pa.
CORPORAL—Donald McLeod, North Wales, Pa.
PRIVATE—Fred A. Small, Pittsburgh.
PRIVATE—William J. Brady, 2115 South Rosewood street, Philadelphia.
MAJOR—McCormick, Towanda, Pa.; William J. O'Brien, 148 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.
Died of Disease
CORPORAL—Edward J. Malone, at Weaver street, Philadelphia.
PRIVATE—William J. Brady, Pittsburgh; Joseph S. Hagner, Pittsburgh; Henry J. Rodgers, Pittsburgh; Mose White, Blairsville; Victor A. Zenger, Cwynyrd.

Wounded Slightly in Action
SERGEANTS—George T. Gillingham, Uniontown; James V. Ferguson, Williamsport.
PRIVATE—Bernard J. McCreary, 2605 West Sixth street, Chester; Philip Miller, Lebanon; William J. Schumaker, Greensburg; Fred J. Schumaker, Greensburg; Dennis J. Foley, Pittsburgh; Miles H. Chan, Pittsburgh; August Voltz, Greensburg; John Wisniewski, Reading.

Wounded Slightly in Action
SERGEANTS—George T. Gillingham, Uniontown; James V. Ferguson, Williamsport.
PRIVATE—Bernard J. McCreary, 2605 West Sixth street, Chester; Philip Miller, Lebanon; William J. Schumaker, Greensburg; Fred J. Schumaker, Greensburg; Dennis J. Foley, Pittsburgh; Miles H. Chan, Pittsburgh; August Voltz, Greensburg; John Wisniewski, Reading.

Wounded Slightly in Action
SERGEANTS—George T. Gillingham, Uniontown; James V. Ferguson, Williamsport.
PRIVATE—Bernard J. McCreary, 2605 West Sixth street, Chester; Philip Miller, Lebanon; William J. Schumaker, Greensburg; Fred J. Schumaker, Greensburg; Dennis J. Foley, Pittsburgh; Miles H. Chan, Pittsburgh; August Voltz, Greensburg; John Wisniewski, Reading.

Trolley Fares Pocketed

Baltimore Conductors Are Rounded Up for Robbing Company

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 23.—Eleven conductors of street cars in the employ of the United Traction Company were held for the Grand Jury yesterday on charges of stealing fares. The detectives rounded up the conductors, nearly all of whom are young employees, have signed statements from each admitting that several who had been conductors only two or three months had stolen from $100 to $300. None of the women conductors so far implicated. Other arrests of men conductors are expected.

Shuylkill County Passes Crisis

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 23.—Notwithstanding unseasonably warm, murky weather of the sort favorable for influenza, the number of cases in this district amounted more than 1400 Sunday, and the situation is so favorable that many of the army doctors are arranging to leave here, where the epidemic is gaining a foothold, which have been closed with a shortage of employees.

TWO FROM HERE CITED AS HEROES

Philadelphians in "Iron Division" Win Commandant's Praise

Once again the Twenty-eighth Division, which won the right to be called Iron Division in the fighting on the Vesle, has been honored for bravery, and two Philadelphians and four from the State have won special mention for gallantry.

BRAVE AGAINST ODDS

Major General Charles H. Muir, commander of the division, has just issued an order of praise, lauding the Pennsylvanians for their valor.

Wounded, Leads Men On

Lieutenant Merrick was wounded by machine-gun bullets in the hand and elbow, but bravely refused to be evacuated, and for two hours directed what was left of his men, getting them back to safety, together with other units that had attached himself to his command.

Wounded, Leads Men On

Lieutenant Merrick was wounded by machine-gun bullets in the hand and elbow, but bravely refused to be evacuated, and for two hours directed what was left of his men, getting them back to safety, together with other units that had attached himself to his command.

Wounded, Leads Men On

Lieutenant Merrick was wounded by machine-gun bullets in the hand and elbow, but bravely refused to be evacuated, and for two hours directed what was left of his men, getting them back to safety, together with other units that had attached himself to his command.

Wounded, Leads Men On

Lieutenant Merrick was wounded by machine-gun bullets in the hand and elbow, but bravely refused to be evacuated, and for two hours directed what was left of his men, getting them back to safety, together with other units that had attached himself to his command.

Phone Man Burned by Gas

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 23.—Gas escaping from a main in the vicinity of Twenty-fourth Market and Tenth streets, burned a telephone workman, who was killed while in a manhole. The escaping gas, which was highly inflammable, was removed to the Delaware Hospital. Shortly afterward the gas exploded in a manhole at Tenth and Market streets, away. The Brandt's wire company extinguished the blaze.

NEWS OF SHIPYARDS

CRAMPS' MACHINISTS FORMING GUN CLUB

Plentitude of Trap Shooters in I. P. Morris Shop Encourages Organizers

Twelve men in the I. P. Morris machine shop at the Cramp shipyard are going to form a trap gun club. This shop seems full of gunners of almost every variety. Some like the rabbit chase best, some the "reedies," some the quail, some the ducks, while a few will even take a chance with brunt in the mountains. But everybody seems to like the trap, because they are so much easier to get to.

SHIPWORKERS TO GET EIGHTY CENTS AN HOUR

Increase Is Approved by Government Board in Movement to Stabilize Rates

Eighty cents an hour for skilled shipworkers is the basis of a national wage scale adopted by the shipbuilding labor adjustment board and approved by the conference of national labor adjusting agencies, in accordance with the Government's latest plan for stabilizing wages.

SAFETY FIRST AT BETHLEHEM

Rules for Protection Undergo Hard Test at Harlan Plant

Safety first rules are now being given a hard test at the Harlan Bethlehem plant. A large organization has been formed in every department of the company. Each department has a committee of its own to see that all the rules are strictly observed by the men.

Wanted at Once

100 Steamfitters
100 Sheet Metal Workers
100 Plumbers
100 Electricians

Pay—75c per hour, double time for overtime. Making 95 to 125 hours per week.

Wanted at Once

100 Steamfitters
100 Sheet Metal Workers
100 Plumbers
100 Electricians

Pay—75c per hour, double time for overtime. Making 95 to 125 hours per week.

Wanted at Once

100 Steamfitters
100 Sheet Metal Workers
100 Plumbers
100 Electricians

Pay—75c per hour, double time for overtime. Making 95 to 125 hours per week.

Wanted at Once

100 Steamfitters
100 Sheet Metal Workers
100 Plumbers
100 Electricians

Pay—75c per hour, double time for overtime. Making 95 to 125 hours per week.

Wanted at Once

100 Steamfitters
100 Sheet Metal Workers
100 Plumbers
100 Electricians

Pay—75c per hour, double time for overtime. Making 95 to 125 hours per week.

Winter Suits of pure wool worsteds at— $25.00

—Is creating a welcome diversion from War News these fine fall days.

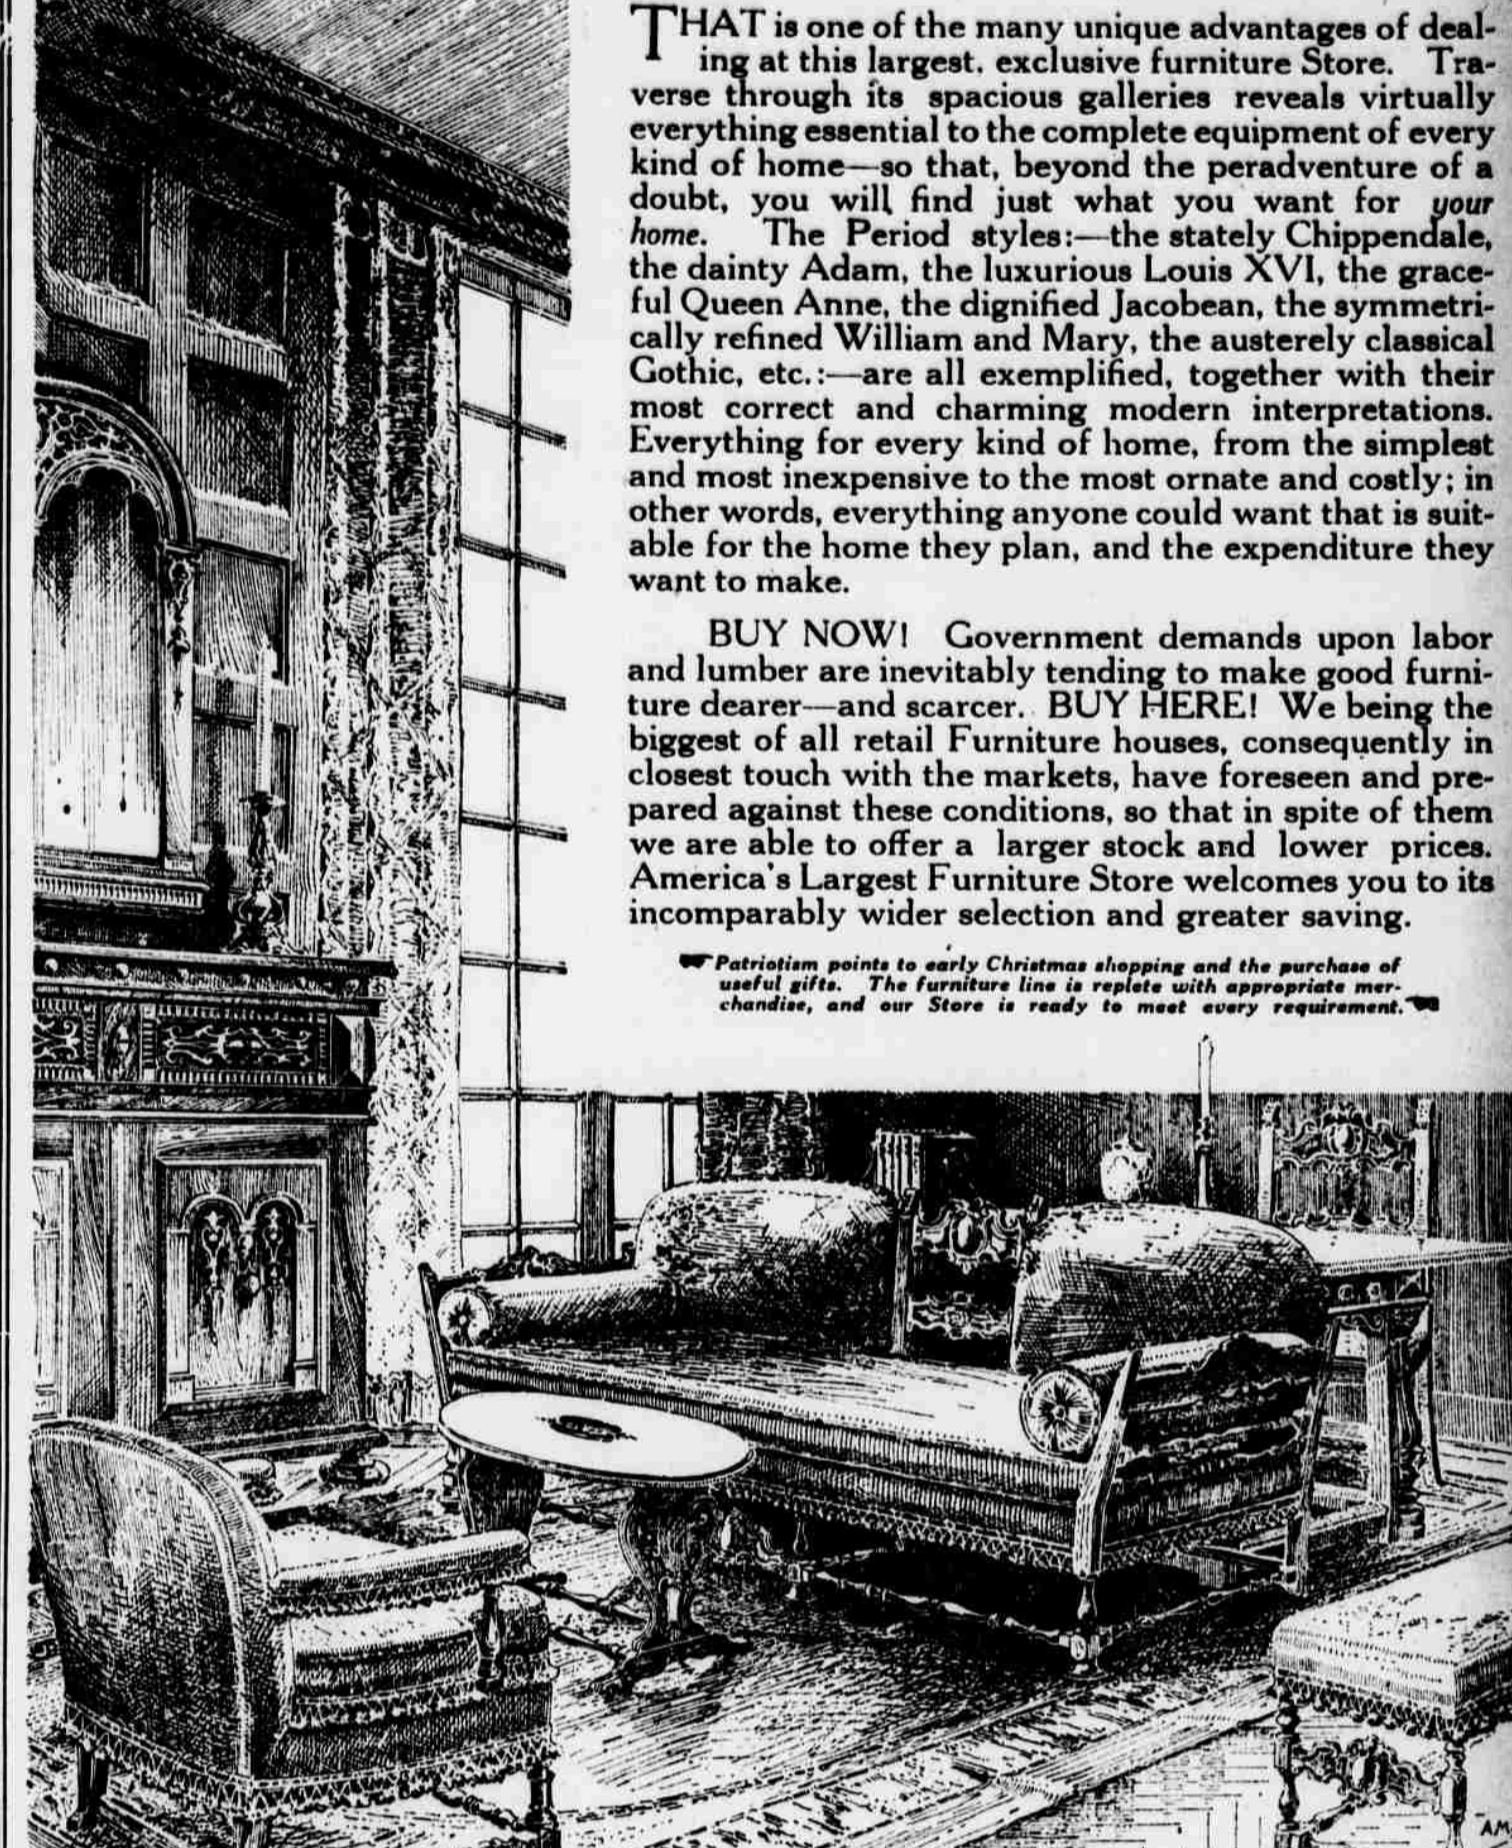

(35 qualities)—
William H. Wanamaker
 1217-19 Chestnut St.

Full Equipment for Thousands of Homes is Here for You to See and Make Your Own Selection

THAT is one of the many unique advantages of dealing at this largest, exclusive furniture Store. Traverse through its spacious galleries reveals virtually everything essential to the complete equipment of every kind of home—so that, beyond the peradventure of a doubt, you will find just what you want for your home. The Period styles—the stately Chippendale, the dainty Adam, the luxurious Louis XVI, the graceful Queen Anne, the dignified Jacobean, the symmetrically refined William and Mary, the austere classical Gothic, etc.—are all exemplified, together with their most correct and charming modern interpretations. Everything for every kind of home, from the simplest and most inexpensive to the most ornate and costly; in other words, everything anyone could want that is suitable for the home they plan, and the expenditure they want to make.

BUY NOW! Government demands upon labor and lumber are inevitably tending to make good furniture dearer—and scarcer. BUY HERE! We being the biggest of all retail Furniture houses, consequently in closest touch with the markets, have foreseen and prepared against these conditions, so that in spite of them we are able to offer a larger stock and lower prices. America's Largest Furniture Store welcomes you to its incomparably wider selection and greater saving.

Patriotic points to early Christmas shopping and the purchase of useful gifts. The furniture line is replete with appropriate merchandise, and our Store is ready to meet every requirement.

Section of Living Room in Early Italian Renaissance; Recently Sketched from Our Floors

An exquisite modern adaptation of Early Italian Renaissance, finished in walnut, with scrupulous fidelity as to line and ornamentation. The upholstery is of antique figured silk velour of rich mulberry hue, which blends admirably with the finely carved, dark wood. This is but one of the many unusual suites which make our floors so attractive and interesting.

Values in Floor-Coverings that Deserve Close Attention—Demand Quick Action

Close attention, because they will stand the sharpest comparative tests, for quality and cost considered, they are unequalled. Quick action, because discriminating buyers (and this includes not only householders, but proprietors of the better class hotels and apartment houses), will be quick to perceive the money-saving opportunities here presented—and equally quick to take advantage of them.

Unusual Values in Domestic Rugs		Rare Values in Oriental Rugs
$36.00 Seamless Tap, Brussels, 9x12,	$29.75	$195.00 India Rug, 9.2x6.2,	$98.00
$57.00 High-pile Axminster, 9x12,	$39.75	$210.00 Afghan Bokhara, 11.0x8.2,	$115.00
$54.00 High-pile Axminster, 8.3x10.6,	$37.50	$215.00 Hyderabad, 10.9x8.0,	$135.00
$32.00 High-pile Axminster, 6x9,	$24.50	$240.00 Persian Mahal, 12.7x8.7,	$160.00
$56.00 Best Seamless Velvet, 9x12,	$39.75	$385.00 Persian Anatolian, 12.0x9.1,	$250.00
$52.00 Seamless Velvet, 8.3x10.6,	$36.50	$350.00 Persian Serapi, 12.9x9.10,	$225.00
$91.50 Royal Wilton, 9x12,	$68.50	$600.00 Persian Tabriz, 12.9x9.4,	$475.00
$86.00 Royal Wilton, 8.3x10.6,	$67.50	$800.00 Persian Tabriz, 12.10x9.1,	$475.00

Carpets Below Mill Cost

Yes, actually below the factory prices of to-day, owing to our early purchases. Full rolls of some patterns, and quite a few with borders and stairs to match. An unusual money-saving opportunity for hotels, institutions as well as householders.

$4.25 Best Wilton Velvet, $2.50 yd.
$3.75 Bigelow Axminster, $1.95 yd.
$2.50 Wool Velvet, $1.75 yd.
$2.50 Roxbury 10-wire Tap, Brussels, $1.65 yd.

Draperies and Bedding

In draperies you will find here the latest designs in Cretonnes, Armures, Damasks, Velvets, Silks, etc. Lace Curtains—Scrims, Marquisettes, Glunys, Arabians, etc.—in profusion, at astoundingly low prices; a showing beyond comparison. Bedding—blankets, comforters and sheets—in vast variety and in all grades, at lowest cost possible under market conditions. And in this last mentioned line, particularly, "BUY NOW" is a slogan well worth remembering. Blankets, from $3.25 to $20.00 pr. Comforters, from $3.35 to $25.00 pr.

J. B. Van Sciver Co.
 Manufacturers, Importers and Retailers
 Market Street Ferry, Camden, New Jersey