

PEN AND PENCIL HERE HELP US TO LAUGH A LITTLE AT THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

(THIS PAGE IS FULLY PROTECTED BY COPYRIGHT)

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

The tri-annual mistle

BOOTED AND SPURNED

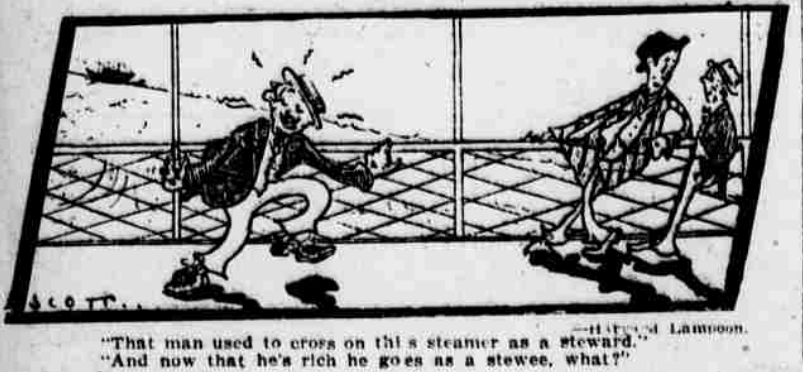

One day soon. -The Bystander

THE TOONERVILLE TROLLEY By FONTAINE FOX

THE STEW

That man used to cross on this steamer as a steward. -It's a Lamoon. And now that he's rich he goes as a steeve, what?

The Promise of Winter

-London Opinion.

THE RETURN OF THE DOVE

LETTING THE CAT OUT

Little Willie - One thing is, it's a black one, so if it does get out we can call it lucky. -The Bystander

Feminine Arithmetic

-Sydney Bulletin.

DISPROOF

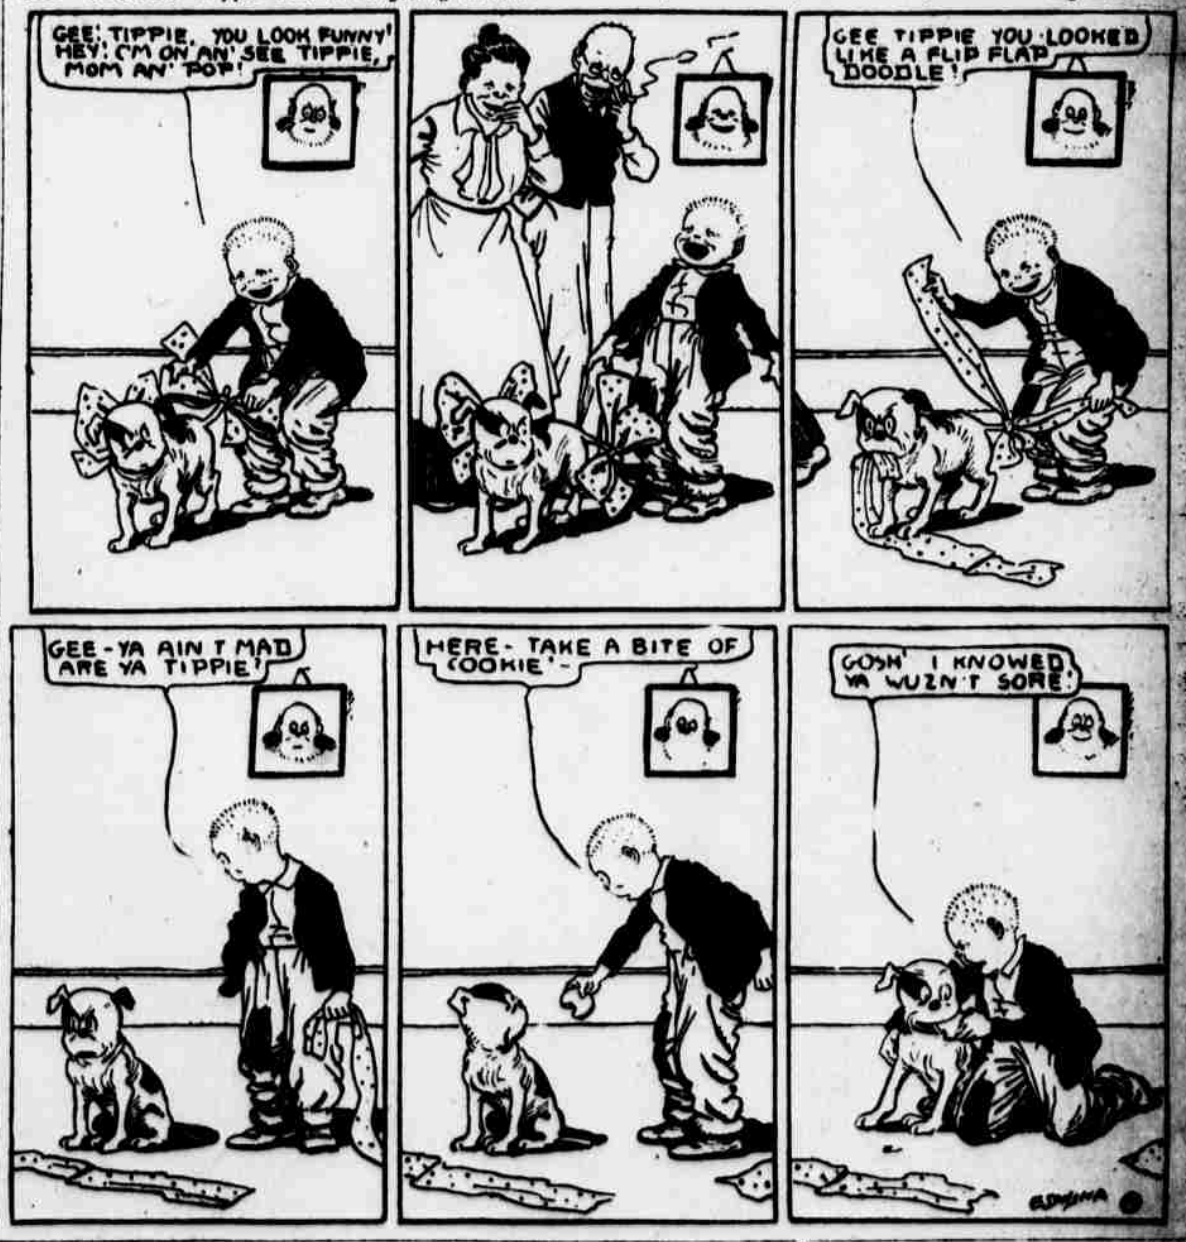

-Cartoons Magazine.

PETEY - It's No Use, Petej; It's No Use By C. A. VOIGHT

'CAP' STUBBS - Tuppie Has a Forgiving Nature By EDWINA

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she supposes the reason the South is so much more interested than anybody else in the price of cotton is because it's so much more there and people can wear...

THE GUMPS - Nothing's Too Good for Min's Mother

By SIDNEY SMITH

MOVING PICTURE PUNNING

Cut out the picture on all sides. Then carefully fold down line 1 the entire length. Folded line 2, and so on. Fold in coating underneath. When completed, the picture will be ready to use.