Absence of Supply After Lower Opening Causes Advances, but Selling Comes Toward Midday and Brings Drop—Steel at New Low

The stock market was established in new conditions with the beginning of business today, when there was an absence of supply at around the low range established yesterday, and instead of stocks being pressed for sale, there was an urgent demand coming from many sources...

SENTIMENT IN CORN LEANS TO BEAR SIDE

Favorable War News and Possible Effect of Restrictions on Loans Are Market Factors

Sentiment in corn continues to lean to the bear side on account of the favorable war news and pessimism as to the effect of the restrictions on loans for dealing in securities...

COTTON PRICES RALLY AFTER WEAK START

The cotton market opened weak with a decline of 1/4 to 1/2 points. Active selling by Wall Street, western houses, Liverpool and the south affected the market, as did weak cables.

STOCK TRADING IS EXTREMELY DULL ON THE LOCAL EXCHANGE

Business Early in Session Is Made Up of Small, Odd Lots, With Changes in Prices Few and Uninteresting—Steel Advances

Stock trading was dull and uninteresting during the early part of today's session on the Philadelphia exchange. Business was made up of small, odd lots by the end of the first hour...

Philadelphia Rapid Transit certificates remained unchanged, while Union Traction received a title, Electric Storage Battery, United Gas Improvement and Lehigh Navigation, which was ex-dividend, came out at their previous closing quotations...

United States Steel common, which made up the bulk of business in the previous session and was weak, due to the reduction of the extra dividend rate, showed little life and, after a lower opening, was slightly above yesterday's close.
