

PEN AND PENCIL HERE HELP US TO LAUGH A LITTLE AT THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

(THIS PAGE IS FULLY PROTECTED BY COPYRIGHT)

SOME ONE TOOK THE TERRIBLE-TEMPERED MR. BANG'S FURNACE SHOVEL OUT OF THE BASEMENT By FONTAINE FOX

Field Hospital Surgeon—You are shell shocked? Do you shake and tremble? Patient—Continually, Doctor, continually.

THE SCRATCH CAT

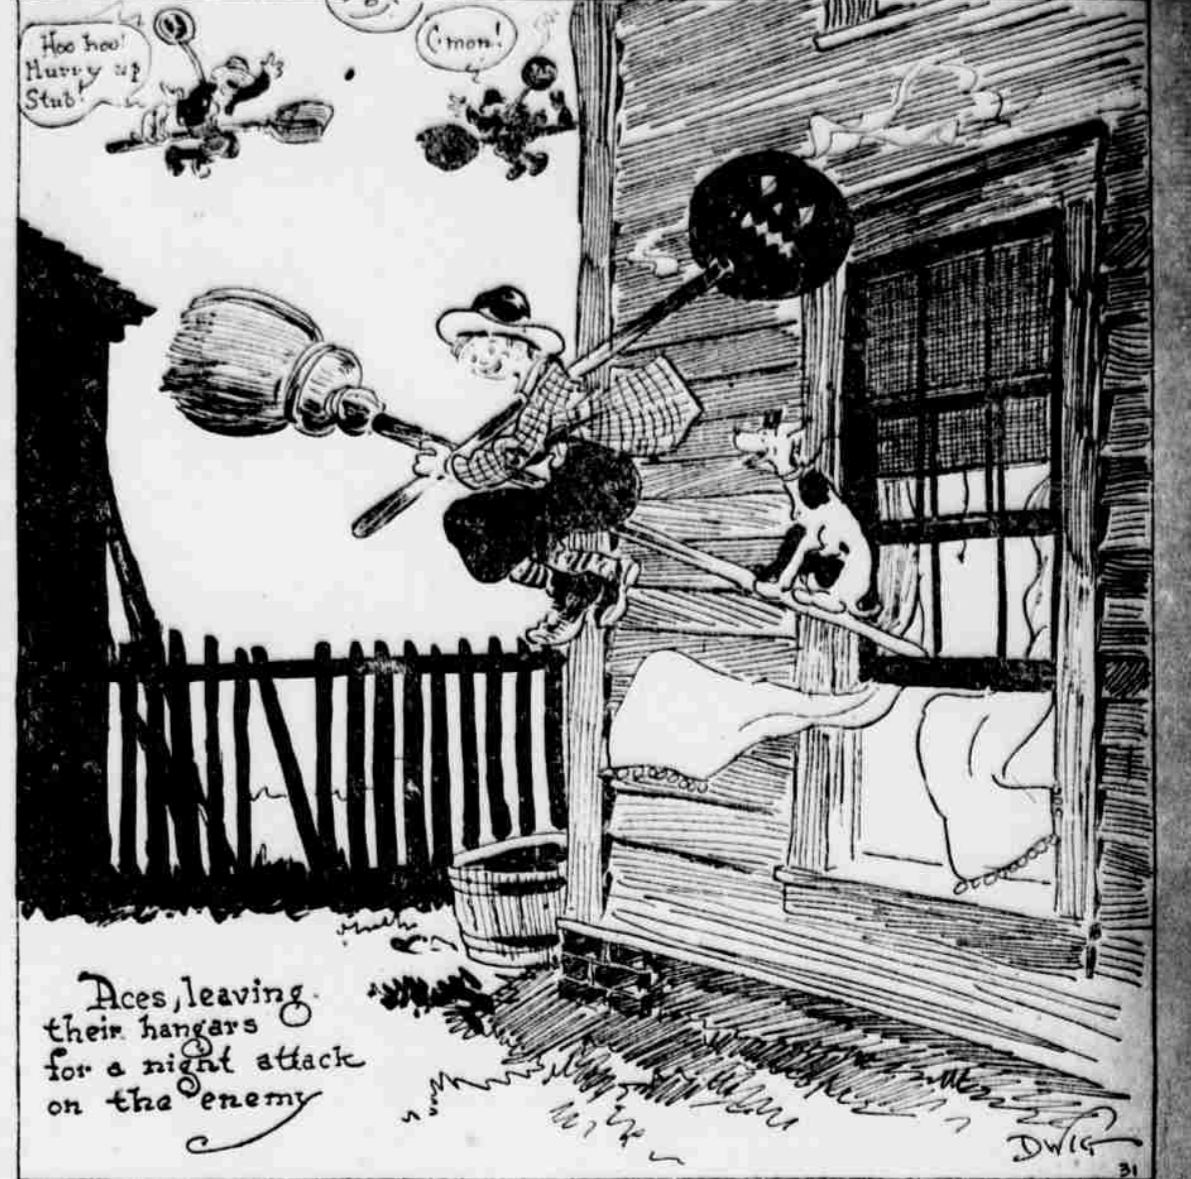

"Mr. Casper is such an interesting talker. He's always saying something one never hears from any one else." "Oh, has he been proposing to you?"

AN AUTUMN WARDROBE

—Cartoons Magazine.

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

Aces, leaving their hangars for a night attack on the enemy

"CAP" STUBBS—Halloween By EDWINA

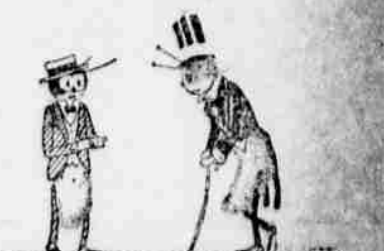

THE LATEST QUEUE

The Blackberry Queue.

Lit Up

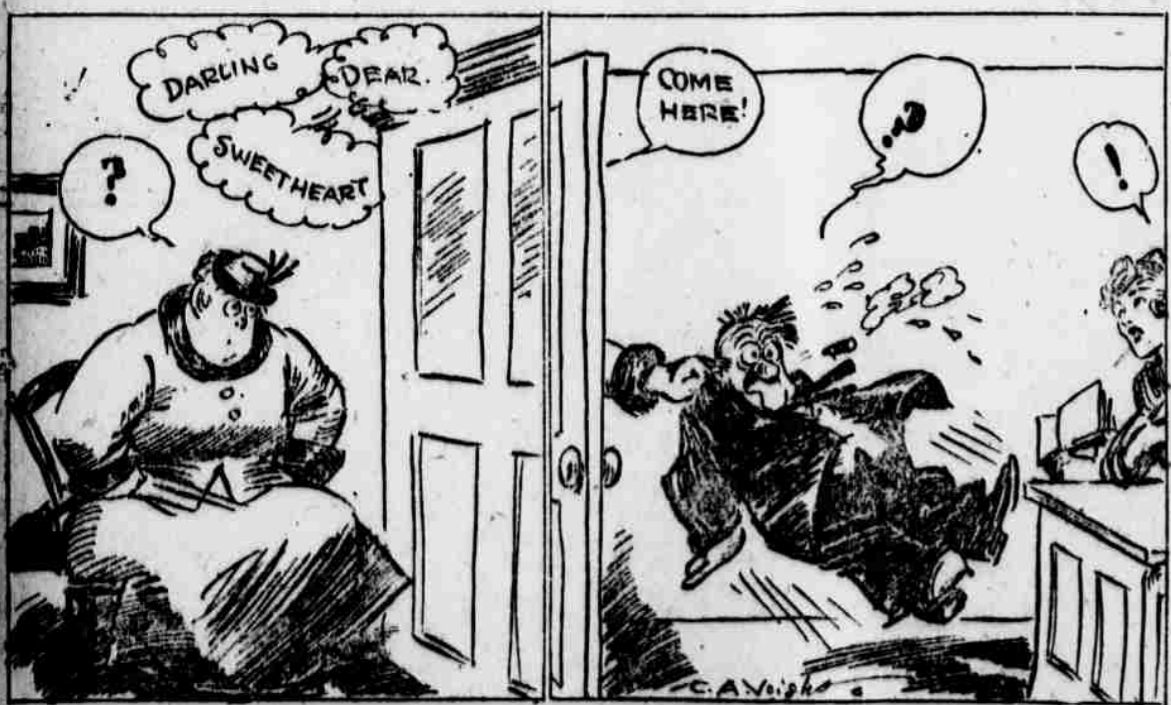

"I thought you told me the other day that you town went dry." "It did." "It funny, I'm sure I saw Willie Firefly all lit up last night!"

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way she saw in the paper American had captured millimeter guns from...

FETEY—Mrs. Dink Hears the High Spots and Fetey Hits Them By C. A. VOIGHT

MOVING PICTURE FUNNIES

Get out the picture on all four sides. Then carefully fold dotted line 1 its entire length. Then fold line 2, and so on. Fold each section underneath, accurately. When you are done, you will have a...

THE GUMPS—Min Is Onto Andy's Pitching

Copyright, 1918, by The Tribune Co. By SIDNEY SMITH