or Royer's Failure to Notify Penn of Ruling gainst Lafayette Almost Caused Quakers to Spend Quiet Day at Franklin Field

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

HEN it comes to arranging for football games during the wee hours of the morning, shake hands and congratulate the respective managers Swarthmore and Pennsylvania. Had it not been for the rapid-fire action those who govern football at the University and at the Garnet institu-, Philadelphia still would be waiting for the opening game of the intergiate football season

It was almost a month ago when it was first announced that the little skers and the big Quakers would pry off the lid of the local football Two days ago if any one mentioned this fact again, they immediately become candidates for the reckless ward. Lafayette was all primed, dy and fit to come to Philadelphia as an attraction at Franklin Field this afternoon, and up to a late hour yesterday afternoon the Eastonians wors making preparations for the journey here. Lafayette will stay at The Garnet has taken the place of the Maroon.

All the trouble, excitement and nervousness was caused by Doctor er, the acting head of the State Health Board, who notified Lafayette but they would not be permitted to make the trip. For some reason Pennwania was not taken into Doctor Royer's confidence. Red and Blue horities heard only from Lafayette that the Maroon would not be able ppear. The University had sold tickets and advertised the game. It was up to them to make good.

EDWARD R. BUSHNELL, immediately not in touch with the bosses of several other institutions, and it was not until on carly hour this morning that the game was arranged with Swarth-

Dartmouth to Oppose Penn in Thanksgiving Day Game

THAS been announced definitely that Dartmouth would be Penn's ponent on Thanksgiving Day instead of Cornell. This is breaking a nt that was established almost twenty-five years ago, but the war has ed a heap of quarter-century precedents. Cornell will not be able got a team together for the annual battle with the Red and Blue, and as nouth previously had asked for the date providing the Ithacans would not be able to play, the Hanover institution was awarded the engagent. The New Englanders will be tested by Syracuse at Syracuse today,

This leaves the Red and Blue without a game for next Saturday. It planned originally to have the Garnet play on Franklin Field if the Dertmouth game were moved back, but in view of the fact that Swarthcomes to blows with Penn this afternoon, some other rival must be nd. If Doctor Royer permits the Lafayette players to travel next week. Maroon will be the attraction.

Never before has the management of the University been forced to so many changes in the schedule as this year. If one complete at of dates has been arranged, five have been completed. As it stands w, the schedule is not fixed in its entirety, for an opponent must be rained for November 23.

WE CAN think of much better jobs than arranging football schedules this year. Between the war and the epidemic the pridiron managers have been forced to do mental gymnastics.

Sanford Says Rutgers-Pitt Game Never Was On EORGE FOSTER SANFORD, of Rutgers fame, passed through Philadelphia this morning and called us on the phone.

"What's that stuff I hear about a game with Pitt in New York on tion day?" he asked.

"You are supposed to play for the war work campaign," we replied. "Nothing to it," retorted Sandy. "Haven't heard a word, and if the nittee arranged the game nothing was said to me. So far as I am erned the game is off, because it never was on. I'd like to play Pitt any other team, but I doubt if we will get together. Central High Shows Power

The Crimson and Gold started the season with a defeat, losing to Radnor High, 3 to 0, but yesterday Captain Long and his team pals demonstrated their real driving power by swamping South Philadelphia High, 39 to 6, in the opening clash for the Ellis A. Gimbel Trophy.

The score about represents the difference in the strength of the two elevens as they played on the Houston Field gridiron. From the first kick-off, the Red and Black never had a chance, except when a fumble gave Freeman the opportunity to spring his 40-yard sprint opportunity to spring his 40-yard sprint for a touchdown.

The ball was rarely in Central High territory and it was only occasionally that Dean Johnson's boys had a chance on the offense, and when wied the Crimson and Gold defense stood like the proverbial saone wall. No One-Man Team

The most pleasing part of the victory from a Central High standpoint was the fact that every man had a part in the triumph. It was no one-man team that beat the Southwark boys; it was eleven
