HOW TO GET OVER BEING SHY'AND SELF-CONSCIOUS

Advice Given to a Girl Who Wants to Run From People and Yet Would Like to Mingle With Them- A Practical Plan That Often Works

THOSE fortunate beings who go on day after day meeting people with out going through misery and agony can perhaps never realize what it means to be self-conscious. Yet there are thousands and thousands of selfconscious boys and girls, men and women to whom facing a comful of people is an ordeal so painful that it just can't be described.

I ask for a cure for self-convenous nese. Being rather nervous when I was young, I could not below throwing people were starting at me I am unable to be natural in commany. I unable to be natural in company. I am afraid of conversation and its just misery for me to face strangers.

Oh. I wish you could help me.
It seems so hard for others to understand how I feel. I want to the standard for others to understand how I feel. I want to the time I am longing to gradie with them. I am longing to gradie with them, I am longing to gradie with them, I am longing to gradie with the face of the last three parts of the last the last smoking dish before him, he exclaimed disgustedly. This is the last th

Over the expanse of the polished mahogany desk Helen saw her father in the clear morning light. His steek head was streaked with gray and fine lines had apread a network of wrinkles at the corner of each eye. But he koked the successful husiness man, every inch of blm, and Helen thrilled involuntarily. Somehow he seemed more human seen here in the dear light of the morning aun, that streamed through the large windows.

How to Grow Winter Greens in the milder pertions of the country it is possible by the aid of a cold frame to grow lettuce, radishes, spinach, kate and parsely throughout the winter. The cold frame may be any size from three feet by six feet—this being the size of the standard cold frame srab—to six feet by any multiple of three feet. A four-siss frame—that is, one six by twelve feet—would be large enough to supply the average family with winter greens.
