

EDGE AND BAIRD WIN NEW JERSEY

Republicans Leading by Good Margins for United States Senate

WILSON APPEAL FAILS

Democratic Gain of Three Seats in House, However, Seems Likely

Trenton, Nov. 6. Governor Edge and Senator David Baird, Republicans, are leading by fairly wide margins in the contest for New Jersey's place in the United States Senate.

The vote in 1911 of the 1911 election districts gave Governor Edge 80,960 and George M. La Monte, Democrat, 72,241. Senator David Baird is leading Charles D. Hennessey for the short term by 79,261 to 72,749.

Democrats Gain Two in House

New Jersey's House of Representatives delegation will be composed of seven Republicans to five Democrats, a gain of two for the Democrats as follows:

- First District—William J. Browning, Republican. Second—Isaac Bacharach, Republican. Third—Thomas J. Scully, Democrat. Fourth—Eliah C. Hutchinson, Republican. Fifth—Ernest R. Ackerman, Republican (long term); William F. Burch, Republican (short term). Sixth—John R. Ramsey, Republican. Seventh—Amos H. Radcliffe, Republican. Eighth—Cornelius A. McGinnon, Democrat. Ninth—Daniel F. Minahan, Democrat. Tenth—Frederick R. Leibauch, Republican. Eleventh—Edward C. Brennan, Republican. Twelfth—Theodore L. Hirsch, Republican or James A. Hamill, Democrat.

Legislature Republican

The State Senate will stand as at present, sixteen Republicans to five Democrats. Burlington, Harold B. Wells, Republican; Cape May, William H. Bright, Republican; Hudson (to fill vacancy), Edward I. Edwards, Democrat; Hunterdon, George F. Martens, Jr., Democrat; Middlesex, Thomas Brown, Democrat; Morris (to fill vacancy), Arthur Whitney, Republican; Sussex, Albin Smith, Republican; Warren, Henry T. Kaya, Democrat.

The House of Assembly will be composed of thirty-one Republicans to twenty-nine Democrats, a Republican majority of two, just the requisite vote to pass a bill. The membership will be as follows:

- Atlantic County—William A. Blair, Republican; Underwood Cochran, Republican. Bergen County—Walter G. Wynne, Republican; W. Irving Glover, Republican; William St. John Tozer, Republican. Burlington County—Emmer Roberts, Republican. Camden County—Raiph N. Kallam, Republican; T. Harry Rowland, Republican; Joseph F. Walkworthy, Republican. Cape May County—Mark Lake, Republican. Cumberland County—Firman M. Reeves, Republican. Essex County—Louis R. Freund, Democrat; Elroy Hendley, Democrat; Harry A. Aggenbickel, Democrat; Michael E. Judge, Democrat; James J. Whalen, Democrat.

Democrat: Joseph Finley, Democrat: Joseph Siegler, Democrat: James J. Cross, Democrat: Edric C. Greavey, Democrat: James F. Hyland, Democrat: Hugh C. Barrett, Democrat: Charles B. Casale, Democrat. Gloucester County—Horace M. Forder, Republican.

Hudson County—James Bowen, Democrat; John J. Compinger, Democrat; Michael J. Donovan, Democrat; Henry J. Gaede, Democrat; James J. McAteer, Democrat; Andrew Nolan, Democrat; William M. Shultz, Democrat; George W. Snow, Jr., Democrat; Francis A. Stanton, Democrat; Edward J. Sullivan, Democrat; Andrew Muro, Democrat; Louis Silver, Democrat.

Hunterdon County—David H. Agnes, Democrat.

Mercer County—Harvey S. Moore, Republican; William H. Blackwell, Republican; John E. Gill, Republican. Middlesex County—Charles E. Tindell, Republican; Fred W. Devoe, Democrat; Andrew Kirkpatrick, Democrat.

Monmouth County—T. Lloyd Lewis, Republican; Dallas G. Young, Republican.

Morris County—George W. Downs, Republican; David Young, Republican.

Ocean County—Harry T. Hagaman, Republican.

Passaic County—Thomas Fox Hall, Jr., Republican; Henry G. Hershfield, Republican; William R. Rogers, Republican; William W. Evans, Republican.

Paterson, Republican; George M. Shultz, Republican. Salem County—Charles B. Robinson, Sr., Republican.

Somerset County—John S. Ammerman, Republican.

Sussex County—Harold M. Simpson, Democrat.

Union County—Charles L. Morgan, Republican; Arthur N. Warner, Republican; Arthur Warner, Republican.

Warren County—Thomas A. Shields, Democrat.

The Republicans still control the next State Legislature. As a result of a majority on a joint ballot they will elect a State Treasurer to succeed William J. Edge, of Camden, whose term will expire on March 1.

Camden Won By Wets. In Essex County there was a local upset, with James R. Nugent, the Democratic leader, and his "wet" ticket of Assembly apparently on top. The Republicans nominated twelve Assembly candidates known as local option men and conceded to be in favor of the national prohibition amendment in the event of their election. The Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey made a vigorous fight for Republicans. The Democrats, on the other hand, were committed to a wet program and the brewery and saloon interests worked hard for them.

Nearly 100 municipalities in the State voted on the local option law of last year. This vote apparently carried Camden by 6000 and Trenton by 2500. In the smaller municipalities the wets and drys divided honors on what appeared to be about an even basis.

Republican Senators were elected in Burlington, Cape May, Morris and Passaic Counties and Democrats in Hudson and Hunterdon. The Senate contests in Middlesex and Sussex were so close as to be in doubt, the chances favoring the Republicans in Middlesex and the Democrats in Sussex.

Governor Edge expressed his sincere gratification at the splendid support accorded him by the voters of New Jersey, and added that he would endeavor in every way to merit the confidence reposed in him.

DELAWARE GOES TO REPUBLICANS

Senator Willard Saulsbury Probably Defeated for Re-election

POLK IS ALSO BEATEN

Party Leaders Claim Control of the Next State Legislature

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 6. Delaware Republicans, in spite of internal dissensions, won a notable victory by the election of Dr. L. Heiser Ball, a Republican and former United States Senator, over Willard Saulsbury, president pro tem of the Senate and personal friend of President Wilson, by a majority of from 800 to 1000. The Republicans have elected a majority of members of the State Legislature.

While returns from the Legislature will not be completed until today, the Republicans have elected a majority of members of that body. The result was due to the regular organization Republicans combining with the Alfred I. Du Pont, or independent, Republicans at the last minute. Some of the rank and file of the party did not combine and this resulted in the defeat of James P. Allee, county chairman of the Republican party in Kent, for State Senator, but did not change the general result.

The State is normally 2500 Republican and Senator Saulsbury and the other Democrats made a remarkable showing. The Republicans, however, have carried New Castle and Sussex Counties and probably have Kent County despite the fact that all of the early returns were directly to the contrary. Democratic committeemen concede the election of Doctor Ball and the entire Republican ticket. In this County, as well as in Sussex, the Republicans have obtained all of the County officers and probably most of them in Kent, Wilmington, which is normally 1500 Republican, and a Republican majority of less than 300.
