

AMERICAN VALOR AND SACRIFICE WINNING GLORIOUS VICTORIES IN ARGONNE AND ON MEUSE

IN THE MIDDLE OF GERMAN PEACE TALK the Allies have not slackened their war efforts. Here is a new contingent of American troops just landed at Liverpool on their way to the concentration camps behind the lines in France.

A PART OF UNCLE SAM'S FLYING CIRCUS. The giant gas bags, with the flabby-like ears and big trunks, resemble, in a general way, monster elephants. The picture shows the balloon being brought from its hangar—previous to ascension.

AMERICAN WOUNDED RECEIVING FIRST AID in the ruins of Fleury

AMERICAN FIELD SIGNAL MEN near Juvigny repairing communication wires that had been severed by shell fire

REAR ADMIRAL CHARLES P. PLUNKETT, in charge of the navy guns which are working havoc with the German land forces. While these guns are doing army work, they are operated by officers and men of the navy.

PIE FOLLOWS THE FLAG. One of the outdoor pie bakeries that the Salvation Army establishes wherever the American soldier goes on the western front.

THE AMERICAN WAR CROSS to be awarded to our fighters for deeds of bravery.

FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE—American medal to be awarded to either men or women for distinguished war service.