WOMEN'S HEARTS THROUGHOUT THE ALLIED WORLD JOIN FORCES IN OUR NEW DAY OF PEACE

TORCH AMERICAN WOMEN CAUGHT NOT LIGHTLY HELD

And in This the Day of Peace Their Hearts Go Across the Seas to France, Whence the Torch Came-We Want to Thank the Women of Our Allies!

Pear not that we have died for sample.

The torch we three to us we conside.

ELSEWHERE on this page will be found the norm from which there two lines are taken and an explanation of why it was written in this day of our own gladness somehow that marvelloss poem. "In Flanders Field, and its answer seem symbolic of the whole war. When we think of those men who died for ideals in the most of Flanders we women feel humble. Vet in our way we caught a torch, too.

we caught a torch, too.

For three years before America entered the war women 3000 miles away were having their hearts wrong with the anguish and bitterness of man lost to them forever. Theirs was the fate too, to see their homes burned down their daughters snatched from the shetter of careful homes and their little energy grays in lale and wondering at a world that had broken faith with childhood.

A.L. this for three years and there are they feeling. What are they do not the sending over of troops was, as one of our soldlers in France remarked tooked upon simily as an international courtessy. America came they spend her source here, but she will not spend her source here, but she will not spend her money here, but she will not spend her money here, but she will not spend her money here, but she will not spend her source have the remarked tooked upon simily as an international courtessy. America, some thought, rich, carefree America, will spend her money here, but she will not spend her source here, but she will not want are trained to the states, will spend her source here, but she will not want our hoys to your lack again want their boys to go.

"American women will not wake up." "Marking wants to being the battlefield of the world miles away.

Then suddenly something barpened, it must have been then we caught the lock high until it is cased.

corn, beans or onions. But here's what I did with them the other Tuesday when Mr. Hoover said "no meat." I made vegetable croquettes, and Jim said he was going to be a vegetarian for life. I chopped the vegetables into small cubes, seasoned with sage, sait and pepper, and made a glorious thick cream sauce, to which I added two tablespoonfuls of Al Sauce. I poured this over the vegetables, modded them into croquettes, and fried them in very hot butter substitute. Oh, that Al Sauce! Its niquant flavor, so different from anything else, pulled those croquettes up into the class where the French chefs live!—Adv.
