

PEN AND PENCIL HERE HELP US TO LAUGH A LITTLE AT THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

POOR OLD HENRY PECK HAD TO TRAMP ALL OVER THE VILLAGE SUNDAY MORNING BUYING IN NEWSPAPERS

By FONTAINE FOX

OBLIGING

Sammy—Thanks for the light, old man. —Captions Magazine

THE MISOGYNIST

The Maid discussing the new farm help—Has he ever smell you? The Soldier—Im? No! It's a blinkin' woman later.

MAKING HIM "TIRED"

Sergeant Major (after lecturing on the carrying of the full kit—There 's is, see. All the kit aboard—nothing missin', and full to capacity. Now, does any one want to ask any questions? The Donkey—Yes, Sergeant Major. Where—er—does the hoggar carry his—er—bally spare wheel? —London Opinion.

Safety First

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says Germany does not understand the American temperament if she thinks we will ever be satisfied before we have won a complete victory and thrown up the sponge in triumph in Berlin.

THE DRAWBACK

I guess that kid 'as to 'ave two food cards. 'Lummie! Wouldn't I like to be 'im?' 'Garn! What's the use? It's only got one stummick.' —The Passing Show.

MOVING PICTURE FUNNIES

Cut out the picture on all four sides. Then carefully fold dotted line 1 its entire length. Then dotted line 2, and so on. Fold each section underneath, accurately. When completed turn over and you'll find a surprising result. Save the pictures.

PETEY—That's Going Altogether Too Fur

THE GUMPS—If the Box Was as Big as Andy's Heart!

Ticket Inspector (to newlywed Tommy who has produced marriage certificate in mistake for railway pass)—No, mate, this won't do. It's for a long, wearisome journey, I daresay, but not on the South Eastern and Chatham.
