

BRUSSELS WAITS FOR LIBERATORS

New Soldiers' Council Plans Orderly Withdrawal of German Troops

FALKENHAUSEN RESIGNS

Hindenburg, in Letter, Expresses Sympathy With "Regenerative Movement"

By the Associated Press

Amsterdam, Nov. 15.—The new soldiers' council in Brussels, the Nieuwe Soldaten Raad, has published a number of proclamations arranging for the orderly withdrawal of German troops, appointing the soldiers not to treat their officers and sending "a brotherly greeting" to the Belgian population.

By the Associated Press
The Hague, Nov. 15 (Delayed).—There is no organized authority yet in Brussels, but with dignity, the Belgian cabinet awaits the coming of the armies of liberation.

On Sunday three delegates from the "republic of Hamburg" arrived at Brussels, standing on a balcony, the military commander of the city addressed a crowd of 3000 soldiers and civilians.

Three million Germans have been killed during the war, he said. "That is sufficient, let us have peace."

General von Falkenhausen, the German governor general of Belgium, received the delegates, and in the morning French and Belgian Socialists addressed the crowd. Then a major military band led the way to the balcony and played a red tune to the rousing and cheering.

After an interview of an hour with the delegates, General von Falkenhausen resigned and had accepted the delegates' committee's terms. First, immediate peace; second, that telegrams be sent to the front instructing the soldiers to return to Germany; third, that no orders be given without the consent of the soldiers' committee; fourth, that all units, from division to company, shall elect representatives to the soldiers' committee.

The German general asked that the Germans detain prisoners and respect life and property. German officers then of their own accord began to strip the insignia from their uniforms. Some of them, however, were silent and depressed.

A letter had been received from Field Marshal von Hindenburg who was at Biogen-on-the-Rhine. It was read to the crowd. It said:

"I am heartily in sympathy with the regenerative movement. Soldiers must obey the orders of the supreme soldiers' committee. Let us have peace."

Some soldiers then entered the park which has been closed to the public for four years. They smashed the marble slabs surrounding the beautiful ponds, broke their guns and threw the gun barrels into the water. They then formed a procession and singing the "Marseillaise" paraded through the city behind the red flag.

Never Was There Such a Time of Rejoicing—Never Such a Time for a Man to Look His Best

It's "heads up" these days, and never have men walked with a firmer, prouder step. All that is genuine and fine in life is raised triumphantly high, and the tawdry and unsound have sunk from sight.

Wanamaker Clothing Is One of the Steadfast Things
Its quality never wavers and standards are never lowered. All-wool means every thread pure wool without one shred of cotton—and, better still, all-wool means the longest, most satisfactory wear.

Right Now 1200 New Suits and Overcoats Are Ready at Moderate Prices
All are this season's goods and the greater portion has been here only a matter of days. Prices are exceedingly low for such splendid quality.

For instance:—An Oxford gray overcoat of thick, warm, pure-wool material is cut single breasted with a fly-front or to button through. It is quarter lined with satin, and the sleeves are satin-lined. The lines are good and the style is of the stable sort that does not change. The price is $25.

In suits there are some astonishingly fine things in worsted, and every man knows that there is almost no wear-out to worsted. The patterns are mostly dark grays, lightened by a bright thread here and there. These are $32.50.

So it goes throughout the stock. Pick up the coats and examine how well felled the collars are, how firmly sewn the buttons and flat and smooth the pockets. The closer you look at these clothes the more appreciative of the value you will be.

Suits are priced from $25 to $32.50 Overcoats are $25 to $35
