and Victorious reace at just! Small wonder the world went wild with delight on Monday, and sent forth one mighty pean of joy and thanksgiving, in which the Chestnut Street Shops joined with hearty good will. All business in them was suspended; since resuming it has been doubled, and a general note of gladness radiates from the gay throngs which crowd the stores. But with Christmas less than six weeks off, and much purchasing still to be done, it is difficult to see how the procrastinators will accomplish their share unless they conquer their supineness and begin at once to shop early in the day, before the afternoon rush, so nerve-racking to all concerned.
