knows it and everybody feels it and everybody is heartily glad of it.

this remarkable sale of good dinner sets and glassware.

No need to dwell upon what this Thanksgiving Day is to be - everybody!

Gladness is going to abound, and it will center in the dining room, and so

We ask you to bear in mind that these dinner sets are real, complete, standard, unskimped sets of 106, 107 and 108 pieces; that there are hundreds of desirable patterns to select from; that the prices have been reduced 25 to 50 per cent-

To Help Make the Greatest Thanksgiving Day in History the China Store Do You Love Your Work?

Workmen or workwomen love the work they are doing; they take great pleasure in perfecting themselves, and practice makes perfect. They also serve their employers best when with beautiful manners they show the goods to the visitors wherever and whenever they get the

Sometimes an employe has been known to drop a customer who was known to be seeking a small article for another customer whom the employe knew and had waited on before; or to neglect a customer who said: "I do not wish to buy today." All of which was the worst kind of performance of duty. A looker never forgets that lack of attention, and she speaks of it to her friends and sometimes to one of the

But the opposite is also true—that real politeness and no sign of disappointment in taking much or little time is evident to the customer; all her friends are sure to hear of her experience.

You serve best when you try to be a pleased hostess for every one you meet in your business

There is very little fault to be found with the large assortments that we always have at this time of the year; but it is well not to be too long in seeking such goods as are known to be irreplaceable.

Two Important Books

The serious book-lover will delight in "Eminent Victorians," by Lytton Strachey.

It is an amazingly clever and pointed study, historical and bi-ographical, of the lives of Cardinal Manning, Florence Nightin-gale, General Gordon and Doctor Arnold, and it combines felicity of style with a perfectly serious and critical intention. Price,

The second book is "Luxemburg and Her Neighbors," by Ruth Put-nam, and presents the checkered history of that famous bit of history of that famous bit of border territory. Price $2.50. (Main Floor, Thirteenth)
