

MAKING MEN TOO SERIOUSLY—EMBROIDER A LUNCHEON CLOTH SERGE FROCKS

ABOUT THE MAN WHO MIXES PLEASURE WITH BUSINESS

"Don't Believe All He Tells You," Says the Little Girl in the White Front Restaurant—"If You Accepted His Invitation He'd Fall Over and Die"

A YOUNG woman of twenty-three writes to ask if she can make the men in her office stop trying to mix pleasure with business. It seems so many of them have asked her to go out to lunch, theatre and even for automobile rides on Saturdays.

A Mother's Cares

A mother has so many cares. There's little time to play. She's combing out the snarly hairs or darning holes or mending tears, or kissing hurts or soothing sores.

Showing me the picture of his kids for if he expects me to fall for that? Oh, that's the way with all of them. They don't really want to make me out. They just like to pass the time of the day, and that's the way they do it. I don't mind.

DON'T believe all they tell you, M. G. Honestly, they don't mean it. The average man has enough to do at home to make ends meet without sending any of his hard-earned money on the outside. It's just a man's nature to feel a woman expects him to do it.

Adventures With a Purse

FOUND TODAY 1. Dainty old-time corset covers. 2. Cash register banks for the youngsters.

PLACE the old order changing and giving modifications to the new things about many of them, even in the case of some that you still prefer the good old-fashioned corset cover to the more extreme cambric. Many of these corset covers are embellished most daintily.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE CHESTNUT DAYS

By Minnie M. Townsend

A CHESTNUTING party. "Could anything be more delightful on a crisp October day in the red, brown and golden-hued woods?" Anne's husband, John, asked her as they walked.

Mrs. C. "I'm tired, contentment broke into a smile as she spoke. Anne, 'Dear the Lord, I have asked for a splendid chance to get away from home for a few days. Anne did not hear all that her mother said. She was too busy thinking of the party.

"Mother," Anne laughed in dismay, but on hearing an impatient honk from the waiting machine, she hugged her girls and hurried to the car. She had sent her off with a good-bye.

"There won't be any nutting party for me, Kitty, with this big house to keep in the city and the man to feed. However, we'll make the best of it. The next day was Saturday, and the day after was Sunday. It was a beautiful day, and the golden woods seemed to call to Anne. Determined to forget her domestic duties, she arose early and before the sun had risen she had her breakfast and bread and butter.

An interesting novel based on the life of a young girl who has been interested in her old lady of eighty-four who is supporting her husband of ninety who is glad to hear a kind word and a pat on the head.

How to Find a Beau

Dear Cynthia—I am a young business girl of twenty-two and want a beau and good time. I have been looking for one for some time. I have been looking for one for some time.

Unreasonable Sweetheart

Dear Cynthia—I would like your advice in a case like this. I am a young man, nineteen years old, and in love with a girl who is very lovely and kind, but she does not care for me because I'm not in the service.

Dinners Without Desserts

Dinners without dessert are perfectly possible and quite palatable. However, the dinner craves a bit of sweetness with the meal. It is a good plan to serve something which will satisfy that desire.

Oysters Au Gratin

In a saucepan put one tablespoonful of butter. Melt and add one tablespoonful of flour, half teaspoonful of salt and a little white pepper. Mix smooth and add one cup of milk.

MANDO REMOVES SUPERFLUOUS HAIR

The removal of a hair growth from under the arms or the face can be very easily accomplished by using this excellent preparation. Sold by drug and department stores.

Cut strips of cambric and paste the clippings on both sides, with several inches left at each end. Fold them up and put a ribbon band around them so that even a weak man can unroll or roll with little effort.

Aluminum Cloth

There's nothing more attractive! And so practical—for it never tarnishes, and it "goes with" almost every gown!

PLEASE TELL ME WHAT TO DO

By CYNTHIA

Let Parents Tell of Loss Dear Cynthia—I am a daily reader of your column and have come to you to solve this problem for me.

I know of a case where a mother and her only son who is serving the colors somewhere in France died during the epidemic. Also another where a sister of a soldier boy who is serving the colors somewhere in France died.

I would leave it to the discretion of the parents and relatives to tell the soldiers of their loss. Perhaps they feel it is best to tell the boys while they are so far away and separated from the other loved ones who would help them bear their sorrow.

Two Boys' Troubles

Dear Cynthia—I read the JENNIFER Logan daily, and never fail to read your column. I read the advice you gave to others, so I thought you could give some advice to me for some time, and several times I have been disappointed.

You are entirely at fault for breaking engagements with this young man. Write a note asking him to please keep the promise made for Sunday, and send him a letter to meet me Sunday so that we can be together.

And So They Were Married

Episode One—(Intolerance)

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

CHAPTER VIII AND that was what Ruth proceeded to do, surround Scott with love. She tried to be more than effluent and it was not such an easy thing for her to do.

Then she turned back into the house to straighten it up. Things certainly were at sixes and sevens. When she went to the bathroom, she stopped again. It looked as though a cyclone had struck it. Scott's shaving things strewn the shelf above the porcelain bowl, three towels were thrown on the floor.

Things to Know

In basing sheer silk or other silk material use baginas four or five inches long, as pulling a long thread through delicate material is apt to tear the goods or at least make a mark.

To Save Stale Bread

One of the best uses for stale bread is to cut it into oblongs or diamonds and fry it in the pan with bacon. It is delicious and makes a dish of bacon go twice as far.

where civilization itself was forgotten in almost unbelievable hardships. Scott had never been a devotee of little things, now he was even worse than he ever had been before in his life. Little things simply did not matter at all and he was at sea concerning some of the big ones.
