Celebration of Victory Planned for Tomorrow Afternoon

for Tomorrow Afternoon
Tomorrow afternoon East Germantown is going to stand up and yell.
The folks up there are going to tell the werld how slad they are we whipped
the Kaiser.
It will be a victory parade, with thousands in line. Nobody is barred, and the children will march as well as father and mother and grandmother and grandfather, too.
Schools, orphan asylums, churches,
clubs, fraternal bodies, Red Cross,
Emergency Aid, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts,
army men and naxy men and just plain army men and navy men and just plain-offizens will swell the line and swell the chorus of cheere and singing.

The parade will march over the prin-cipal streets of East Germantown. The paraders will mass in Waterview Park, where they will sing the "Star Spangled Banner."

where they will sing the "Star Spangled Banner."

Leading the line will be veterans of the Civil War in automobiles. There will be veterans of the Spanish-American War also. The methers, wives and sisters of the hundreds of East Germantown lads who have helped win this war will march in a division by themselves, hearing service flags. There will be hands in plenty. And, if possible, airplanes will Ty overhead during the celepration.

Congressman George P. Darrow is honorary chairman of the committee on the celepration. The active chairman is Join J. Gourtney, of Selective Service Board No. 16; Edwin C. Linn is vice chairman; Joreph B. Balley, secretary, and Magistrate Thomas F. Watson, secretary of the finance committee.
