one of the browded piers.

The presence of this great commer-cial flotilla is expected to prove an in-spration to members of the port boom iltee, appointed two weeks ago by Dock Director Webster, when they meet at noon today in the Director's office to formulate plans for pledging all manturers, shippers and importers in section to use this pure exclusively. Six Square-Riggers

Vessels now in the port include fifty-six steamships and six old-time squareregred craft. The foreign countries ren-resented are Great Britain, France, Indy, Japan, Norway, Sweden, Britail, Holland, Denmark and Greece. To the old mariners the most interesting sight are the square-riggers, withheir trim lines and big masts, no taking cargo for foreign shores. Fig. more of these old-timers are now their way here from ports in Sc eir way here from ports in South nerica with cargoes of manganess ore An interesting feature is the fact that among the sixty-two vessels in port twenty-four steamships fly the American hag and are engaged in the overseas. Expletives With a Punch Per-

Five of the square-tiggers are under the Norwegian flag and one under the Swedish flag. The Alfonso, flying the Swedish has. The Alfolio, flying the Norwegish flas, is fully loaded and ready to sail for Sydney, Australia. She is the first sailing craft to leave from Philadelphia to that faraway port with a general cargo in nearly half a century. The other five sailing craft are loading coal and general cargo for his Jane'ro and Muntevides.
