CALLS CONDITIONS GOOD American International Shipbuilding Official Declared Under Misapprehension

Three men, believed to be members of an organized band of thieves who have stolen thousands of dollars worth of valuable drugs from the warehouse of the Smith-Kline and French Company, were held in $1000 bail each for court today by Magistrate E. H. Hoover.

Jack went through three big drives with the 110th infantry of the Iron Division and didn't get a scratch. Luck smiled upon him and the good-natured soldier returned the favor by fighting like sixty, but on August 24 he was taken out of the front lines and sent back to a hospital. His nerves were shattered and he simply couldn't keep up the pace.

They were determined to have a holiday on their own account tomorrow, the deer broke forth from their enclosure near the Tittenhous street entrance in determined mutiny and dashed through the gates of the enclosure.

Italian members of the Manufacturers' Club will give a dinner tonight at the clubhouse, Broad and Walnut streets, as a Thanksgiving celebration of Italy's part in the victory over Germany.

Contrary to popular belief, laws of the United States governing the merchant marine, "aside from certain features of the seamen's act," are no different from those of Great Britain, Germany and Norway, according to Senator Duncan U. Fletcher, of Florida, chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee.

Several other alleged members of the gang, including New York agents who discovered the stolen goods, are yet to be arrested. It was testified at the hearing.

The little town of Charleroi, Pa., sent a galaxy of star soldiers to France, but in the proud war records of these men there is none that shines more brightly than that of "Smiling Jack" Carroll.

The pursuers made an ideal park today. Evidently determined to have a holiday on their own account tomorrow, the deer broke forth from their enclosure near the Tittenhous street entrance in determined mutiny and dashed through the gates of the enclosure.

It is his letter Private Reppert says that he had been in a New York newspaper that he had been killed in action and he wanted to notify his sister that he was very much alive. His leg has been injured, but he is coming around all right and hopes soon to see the members of his family and his friends in Bovertown.
