graph da Copenhagen, sembra abbia intenzione di sottoporre a giudizio i responsabili della guerra, compreso il conte Berchtold, ministro austriaco per gli affari esteri quando scoppiò la guerra, ed il Conte Czernin che fu ministro nell'ultimo periodo. El dispaccio accenna che anche l'ex-imperatore Carlo e parecchi generali dovranno essere sottoposti ad un tale giudizio.

Un dispaccio da Berlino dice che un corrispondente da Vienna ha annunciato che il consiglio nazionale austro-tedesco ha aperto negoziati con i governi Ungheresi e Cecchi, allo scopo di ottenere la loro cooperazione nella pubblicazione di privati documenti diplomatici ed in una investigazione circa le responsabilità per la guerra e la condotta di essa.

NO NEED TO WASTE HOLIDAY LEFTOVERS

Food Administration Hints on What to Do With Thanksgiving Remnants

What to do with the leftover food from the Thanksgiving Day feast is a problem the food administration attempts to solve for the housewife. A few suggestions for conservation have been issued, among them being the following:

Do not let cold pieces of roast fowl be passed out to the children for lunches when they could be made into a meat course for the whole family. Desserts can be reheated, served with a new sauce or fruit and made to appear like new desserts.

Creamed turkey, goose, duck or chicken makes an excellent dish for either luncheon or dinner, following Thanksgiving. All the little pieces, not large enough to serve, and those bits that cling to bones, can be readily sliced, heated well and covered with a cream sauce.

The celery which was left makes a delicious salad when combined with shredded turkey, and a little boiled dressing.

A small pie made of turkey or whatever serving leftovers. The "crust" may be made of mashed potatoes or hominy, as in sometimes done in shepherd's pie.

Vegetable hash is one way of using up small quantities of leftover vegetables. Squash, potatoes and turnips may be put into an oiled baking dish, covered with crumbs and grated cheese, and baked till brown.

Bread pudding will not only use up any odds and ends of bread and cake that may have been left, but if the leftover cranberries are baked with it, it makes a dessert that is delicious as well as food-saving.

Do not waste a single piece of food left from the meal if you have to serve a different kind of food to every member of the family. But recall your knowledge of casseroles and salads and see if you cannot make a delicious dish for the whole family out of the Thanksgiving leftovers.

Wild Turkeys Help Some U. S. Troops in Northern Russia

Archangel, Nov. 29.—So far as was possible in this frozen wilderness, the American troops in northern Russia tried to observe an old-fashioned American Thanksgiving in boxes, block-houses, village huts and birch-bough shelters, and around camp fires as was permitted by the exigencies of the military situation was granted the troops. Some of them at far-away points along almost impassable roads had only their rations, but for the most part special treats were sent along the way in sleighs.
