

DAYS OF SUNSHINE AND BLUE SKIES OF LATE FALL LURE CHILDREN TO OUTDOOR PLAYGROUNDS

ELEN JONES, daughter of John F. X. Jones. In the background is the ever-attractive Rittenhouse Square fountain.

MRS. ANDREW R. SMILEY and son, "Drew" Smiley, 3d.

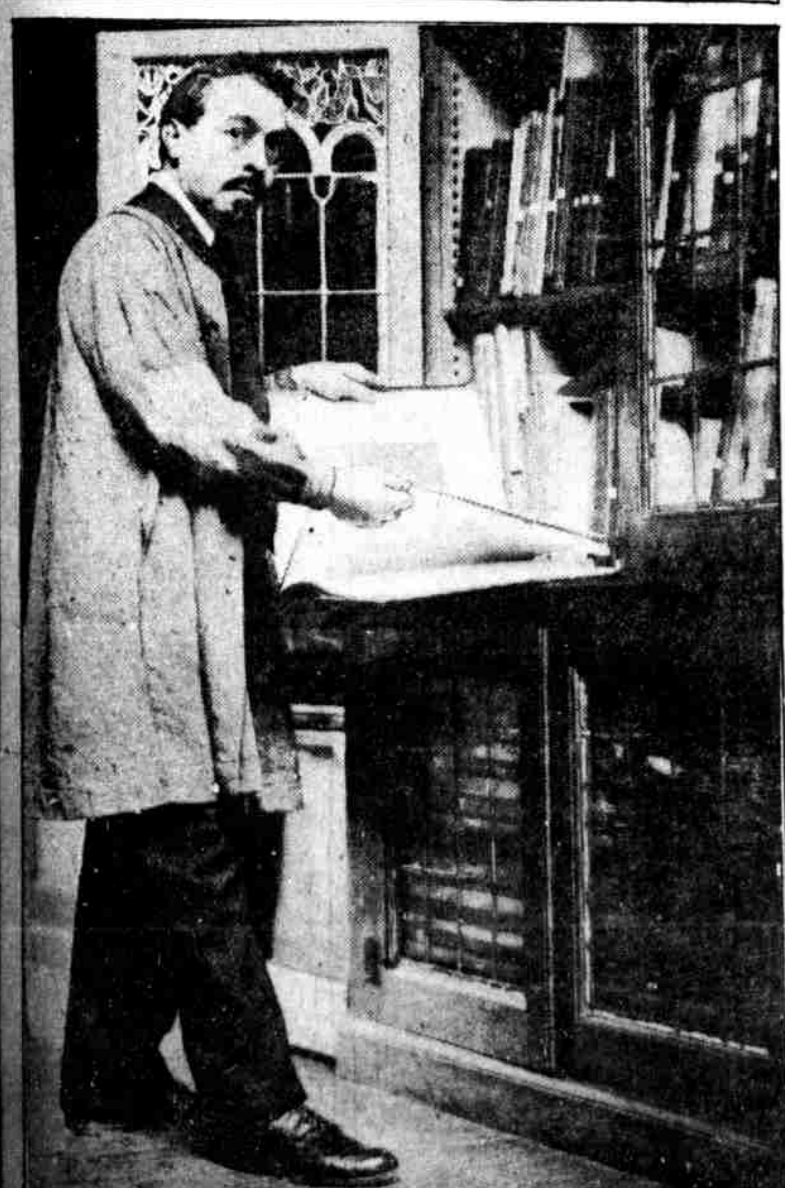

JANE AND JOSEPH GREENBEK, Jane Bernard, daughter of Doctor Bernard, and Mignon Foerdex

LITTLE CHARLES HARDIE CROZIER, son of George Crozier.

"PEM" MARTIN, daughter of Captain Martin.

NICOLA D'ASCENZO, one of Philadelphia's foremost designers of stained glass windows

WHEN GERMAN ENVOYS SIGNED THE ARMISTICE people went wild with joy throughout London. Streets were filled with crowds, and vehicles, as above, were overfilled with happy riders

MISS BESSIE DAVIS, of Athens, Ala., and the cake she baked for President Wilson's Thanksgiving Day dinner