$1.35 net.

For Boys and Girls

By A. Russell Bond, Following a boys' nat-

Following a boys nat-ural bent to construct, the author trains his youthful readers to do real men's work in miniature, at almost no cost. from materials easily available. A book boys will revel in. 250

Hy Jane D. Abbott.
The best of modern American home life is portrayed in this wholesome girls' book.
The enclanament of this delightful story will linger long in the memory of the fortunate girl reader. Histrated, $1.25 me.

American Boys' Book

of Signs, Signals
and Symbols
By Dan Beard. Every
kind of code transmission fascinatingly described:—Indian, forester, animal, tramp, secret organization.
Morse Telegraph, Navy,
deaf and dumb, etc. 356
illustrations by the author. $2.00 net.

the Fighting Apaches
By Edwin L. Sabin
ANOTHER TRAIL
BLAZER: — A stirring

BLAZER: — A stirring tale of adventure with General Crook, the redoubtable Indian fighter. Actual history is the basis for this thrilling tale. Jimmy Duan, who a ided General Crook, will be the eavy of every live, American boy. Illustrated. $1.23 net.

Gulliver's Travels (Stories All Children
Love Series)
By Jonathan Swift.

trated, $1.25 net.

of Signs, Signals

Keineth

A DOG GETS THE CROIX de GUERRE Read PEPLE'S

The War Dog 50 cts.

DUTTON'S 681 Fifth Ave. New York

WE COME!

By RUPERT SARGENT HOLLAND A new, historical and patriotic story for boys.

Illustrated and jacket in color $1.25 At Your Bookstore George W. Jacobs & Co., Publishers, Phila.

GREAT NOVEL AND A MARVELOUS PICTURE OF FRENCH AND GERMAN CHARACTER

The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse

By VICENTE BLASCO IBANEZ

Author of "The Shadow of the Cathedral," etc.

BECAUSE it is beyond question the greatest novel the war has produced -certainly the book most talked of everywhere just now, one that every one will find of deep interest.

BECAUSE, besides being a story of compelling interest, it is an analysis of the shaping of national character which tremendously concerns the American people,-the more effective because it is so unobtrusive.

BECAUSE, in the opinion of many critics, it is the one novel which will long survive the war. As one critic says, it has all the elements which assure to a novel life. "It is full of the pain and beauty and desire of life, but it is never hectic, it has a large canvas but is never uncertain of focus, and its author knows life deeply and yet has faith in it."-(N. Y. Times.)

BECAUSE this very human and interesting story in its last scene "turns the reader's mind away from the horrors of war and the great crime of the Germans to the time when other life shall inhabit the earth and be the wiser and the freer for the sufferings of this generation and this war."

The Dial: "Blasco Ibanez is, above all things, a writer of intense, radiant power. he triumphs in scenes demanding epic descrip tion, until we are overwhelmed with the sense of actuality and feel strange thrill of actual participation . . . the Spaniard stands easily in the forefront of those who have written of the present conflict."-Isaac Goldberg.

BUY IT, AND GIVE IT AS A THING OF VALUE TO BE KEPT AND REREAD.

Authorized translation by Charlotte Brewster Jordan. $1.90.

Thirtieth Edition on the Press.

At all Bookstores. If not obtainable through your dealer it may be ordered direct from the

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Ave., New York

"What matters their dialect," said Napoleon when the pronunciation of his Alsatian soldiers was criticized. "They saber in French."

ALSACE-LORRAINE

By George Wharton Edwards

On the front of Metz Cathedral is a statue of the Prophet Daniel. And the face is that of Kaiser Wilhelm II-upturned mustache and all! That's what Germany did to Alsace-Lorraine-and the Provinces remained French. In graceful text and more than thirty exquisite pictures in color and monotone Mr. Edwards shows the land and its people, its old buildings and quaint customs. This is the handsomest gift book of the year. It is uniform with "Vanished Towers and Chimes of Flanders" and "Vanished Halls and Cathedrals of France." Handsomely bound. Price, $6.00 net.

JOAN OF ARC

By Lucy Foster Madison. The handsomest book this year for young people. The true story of the Warrior Maid in fiction form. Color illustrations by Frank E. Schoonover. Boxed. $2.50.

May be had from any Bookstore, or from THE PENN PUBLISHING CO., 925 Filbert St., Philadelphia

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Andre Cheradame's New Book

The Essentials of an Enduring Victory

will be published

Saturday, December 7

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS'

Jack Purdy Was Shot!

The quickest on the draw in the whole campshot by a "Pilgrim"! And so hour after hour Endicott and Tex Benton pounded out miles between themselves and the pursuing posse.

A story of the cattle country and the The Texan mountains—a red-blooded story of great open spaces, of men who dare, By James B. Hendryx and women who are brave. A turbulent but tender story, impassioned, yet Author of "The Promise," "The Gun restrained.

LAFAYETTE, BOOKS ON AMERICA AND TURKEY IN THE WAR

gives details of the conditions under narrative of the events leading up to

Books of Verse

peace-time vistas and incidents. The meters employed are forthright and make no pretense of polish, but they are successful efforts to combat this new terror of warfare, and finally traces the development of gas-and-flame warfare

GAS AND FLAME IN MODERN WAR FARE. By Major S. J. M. Auld. New York: George H. Doran Company. $1.85.

BOOKS

book for Thackeray lovers. The Life of Wm. Makepeace Thack-eray by Lewis Melville. Numerous illustrations. Reduced from $5.00 to $3.00.

Campion & Company

1316 Walnut St.

British gas attack.

sistency of skimmed milk.

THE UNITED STATES G. W. EDWARDS ON PHELPS AND NATHAN FASCINATING IN THE WORLD WAR ALSACE-LORRAINE

Professor McMaster Has Told Pictures in Color and Mono- The Dramatic Critic and Col- Morgenthau's Tale of What the Story in a Most Inter- tone Accompanied by Hisesting Volume torical and Anecdotal Text

Professor McMaster has produced Professor McMaster has produced what the third of George Whation Ediwhat we have all been waiting for; that wards's books provoked by the war is, a careful, painstaking and impartial appears this year in time for the holigreview of the relation of the United States to the world war. His volume raine. It is a large volume hands with the events of last May When somely illustrated in color and monotone writes a concluding chapter for the tone from drawings and paintings by the war is a careful, painstaking and impartial appears this year in time for the holigraph of the relation of the United day senson. It is about Alsace-Lor-states to the world war. His volume raine. It is a large volume hands and demerits of "The Popular terest of the facts. No novel ever somely illustrated in color and monotone with the events of last May When tone from drawings and paintings by the war that George Jean Nathan fiction about the great war that will draws for his latest discussion of the approach the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of "The Popular terest of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. No novel ever the amazing romance and in-merits and demerits of the facts. he writes a concluding chapter for the inevitable new edition which will be demanded, bringing the story up to the signing of the armistive, the book will take its place as a permanent contribution to history and it will be drawn upon by those who write the full history of the war and the effect of the conflict upon America.

The text is a combination of travel.

tion to history and it will be drawn yound by those who write the full history compare favore of the war and the effect of the conflict, of the war and the effect of the conflict, of the war and the effect of the conflict of the war and the effect of the conflict of the war and the effect of the conflict of the war in the assassination of the Austrian Ordan.

The values of the war in the assassination of the Austrian ordan Duke at Sarajevo. The story of the fast two chapters are in which the provinces had not been forial containing a review of the forial containing a review of the example of the best historic method. This is followed by the story of processing the phase of the subject is an adultable example of the best historic method. This is followed by the story of processing the phase of the subject is an adultable example of the best historic method. This is followed by the story of processing the phase of the subject is an adultable example of the best historic method. This is followed by the story of processing the subject is an adultable example of the best historic method. This is followed by the story of processing the story of processing the subject is an adultable example of the best historic method. This is followed by the story of processing the subject is an adultable example of the best historic method. This is followed by the story of processing the subject is an adultable example of the subject is an adultable example officials in this country is exhibited with about the instory and the search of our relations with the conflict down to our relations with the conflict down to our declaration of war and the discussion of peace.

ALSAUE LORBAINE Described and the professor McMaster's historical method dephils Penn Publishing Comman 16.

fascinatingly has be told his story.

THE UNITED STATES IN THE WORLD WAR. By John Bach McMasier. New York: D. Appleton & Co. 43.

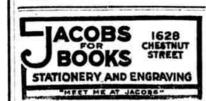

A Dog and the War

the role this ancient and played world war, which appeared in the Satterday Evening Post under the authorship of Eleanor Franklin Egan. She is at her best as a writer on travel, and it is safe to say that these engaging arilicies, along with the others which to-

It may be there is nothing new under the sun, but it must be admitted that tery frequently things are brought forward which at least look different. This they can be said to apply to hooks to one of the sun, there engaging arily cless, along with the others which to gether constitute the narrative of "The War in the Cradle of the World," will endure, for the twofold reason of their genuine worth and that the author one of the general and to books on the war in par-ticular. Take the new story by Eleano: Atkinson, namely, "Pollu," a Dog of Roubaix." Ostensibly this would be the tale of an heroic dog, which is just what it is. But one would hardly expect that the whole story of the incidents leading im-of roof at the time of his tragic death. Her up to the world war and the more terrifying narrative of the sufferings im-posed upon the miserable people of France and Belgium would also be incorporated. One is constrained to comnent the author for thus skillfully esting. weaving into a composite whole a two-fold marrative and for accomplishing her fold marrative and for accomplishing her work without on of the confusion of task without any of the confusion of detail which from experience one might be led to expect.

POLL: A DOG OF ROUBAIN. By Eleanor Alkinson. New York: Harper & Bros.

Rudyard Kipling's

New Book

Will delight every Kipling lover; in it he returns to the old manner of the earlier Indian tales. The letters of an Indian trooper in France to his people back home tell of the extraordinary things he sees in the West, in the figures of speech of his own tongue. $1.00 net. Ask your bookseller for

EYES OF ASIA Doubleday, Page & Company

Marah Ellis Ryan

"The Treasure Trail"

A story in which things happen.

"The Treasure Trail"

An American superromance of adventure and love.

"The Treasure Trail" A story of the quest for a mine of red gold.

"The Treasure Trail" A story of German-Mexican plots against the U. S.

"The Treasure Trail"

An entertaining, en-chanting, fascinat in g and joyous romance.

ALL BOOKSTORES

ON THE THEATRE AS A GOOD NOVEL

lege Professor Don't

The third of George Whation Eds. It is from a remarkable fund of No one will ever be able to write

The American musical play, without plot or theorem, has set a standard for the world. Mr. Nathan believes, and the goes on to say that in beauty, color and movement it marks the one signal achievement of the American theatre. For the motion playing he has living re-gether constitute the narrative of The War in the Cradle of the World," will endure, for the twofold reason of their genuine worth and that the nuthor was one of the few civilians who was allowed to enter the British war zone in Mcsopatania and observe at close range the British campaign there.

In addition to relating her own experiences in Mesopotamia, Mrs. Egan gives details of the conditions under which the British forces lived and fought.

British forces in Mesopotamia, Mrs. Egan gives details of the conditions under which the British forces lived and fought.

British and American stage. It is iron-teat the condition has same and entirely unprofessional book on "The Twentieth Century Theatre" Professor Phelps should be criticism of Mr. Nathan. Professor Phelps believes that more good plays have been written in English in the last thirty years than during any similar period since the death conditions controlling the production of plays in America should be completely which the British forces lived and fought. plays in America should be completely AMBASSADOR MORGENTHAL'S STORY charged Professor Phelios should be Garden City, Doubleday, Page & Co. 12 while at Bagdad she was the guest of While at Bagdad she was the guest of read as a corrective to Mr. Nathan, THE POPULAR THEATRE, By George Jean Nathan, New York: Alfred A. Know narrative of the events leading up to that sad happening is grippingly interesting.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY THEATRE BY William Lyon Phelps, New York, The Macmillan Company, $1.25

Out of the Shadow America, we love you!"

The muse of Denis A. McCarthy is robust and cheery. This quality is particularly prominent in the title poem of his fourth little volume of verse, "Songs of Sunrise." The other rhymes and pogrom to utter this sentiment with all forces. of Sunrise." The other rayles and position to deter his sentiment with an lyrics range from swinging verses in praise of the outdoors to tender bits of pative Americans are more inused to our sentiment and wistful verses rich in afpraise of the outdoors to tender out of the sentiment and wistful verses rich in affection for Ireland. "Dreaming of Summer" most characteristically exemplifies touching tribut, to the enchanted atmosphere which is America's than the poignant story of a Russian emigrant girl of the Shadow." The war poems are marked by stalwart courage that is unmarred by trite jingons, and they are given pervasive human appeal by their finely democratic authentic, and when one considers that Spirit.

The keynote of Amelia Josephine guage was foreign to the girl author, the simple directness of her style is noth-Burr's poems, which have been collected after fugitive periodical publication in "The Silver Trumpet." is courage for those whose mission in the war is to "keep the home fires burning." The poignant anguish of those who have felt the heavy hand of war has not sufficed to quench the singer's faith in the better traits of human nature; this faith shines forth to the many bits of verse which is cartbreaking struggle amid strange surtraits of human nature; this faith shines phere of the East Side of New York, the forth in the many bits of verse which reflect both the bright and tragic moments of the war in characteristic pictures of domestic ties sundered, happy homecomings or heroic acts. The author's expression is graceful and her technique facile.

An ardent love for France vitalizes Paul Scott Mowrer's verses in "Hours to condest dream and the rice shove the fulfillment of the Cohen family's fondest dream and the rice shove the An ardent love for France Vitaizes Paul Scott Mowrer's verses in "Hours of France in Peace and War." Effective contrast is achieved by mingling vivid bits descriptive of the woe wrought by war with idyilic glimpses of charming.

fondest dream and the rise above the squalor which at one time seemed cut out for it. OUT OF THE SHADOW, B) Ruse Cohen, New York: George H. boran Com-pany, 42.

An Ambulance Driver

make no pretense of polish, but they are spontaneous and always in key.

Berton Braley's "In Camp and Trench," described as "songs of the fighting forces." can scarcely be called poetry. They are simply episodes or aspects of army life told in rhyme of blunt and rugged character. There is a hint of kipling in them, but it is of the consistency of skipped milks. The average ambulance driver at the front generally sees more of the grim reality of war than does the soldier. For he is brought more closely and continuously in contact with the terrible aftermath of battle than is the fighting man and his opportunities for observasistency of skimmed milk.

SONGS OF SUNRISE. By Denis A Methon are more varied. It is the more carthy Roston: Little. Brown & Co. $1.25.

THE SILVER TRUMPET. By Amelia J. Burr. New York: George H. Doran & the ceho of battle is heard but faintly, and which is devoted almost entirely to inconsequential chatter about the various courses of a dinner, the weather, the consequential chatter about the various courses of a dinner, the weather, the fifty cents.

Fighting With Gas and Flame end the war.

The narrative covers slightly the narrative covers slightly that summer on the covers slightly than the covers slightly the narrative covers slightly than the covers slightly the covers slightly than the covers slightly the covers slightly than the covers slightly present methods of fighting will never To the undying shame of Germany a book has been written on the terrible than a month last summer on the Lorphases of gas-and-flame warfare which had their invention in the fevered minds fate or fortune to be there during any had their invention in the fevered minds of cupes of the German militarists. The author became chief gas officer to Sir Julian Byng after the Ailies were forced to retaliate in kind upon their conscienceless foe. He tells the story of the first gas attack on April 22, 1915, and the horrow of the Ailied troops; he recounts the at first frantic and later real military activity. But he evidently feel that his impressions, views and experiences were worth recounting, and the gives them cheeffully to a waiting world in this little book.

NO. 6. By C. De Florer. With an introduction by Frederic R. Condert. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. $1.50.

Patriotic Drama

up to the time of its present perfection. Major Auld has received a military cross The war having gathered togethe the loose ends of our national life, it is essential that the good work of for his courage in crawling into No Man's Land to observe the effects of a Americanization continue Perhaps there will be differences of opinion as to the part the drama should play i this, but at least it will be admitted that the drama can be made contributory to a new Americanism. Such is the belief of Constance I'-Arcy Mackay, who in her latest book advances some very workable suggestions for the achievement of a more particule drama achievement of a more patriotic drama. In this she does not confine herself alone to the pageant and the play, but to the festival, the pantomime, the masque, dance-drama processional and simple folk celebrations. Particularly timely are the author's suggestions for the organization of Christmas commu-nity celebrations. PATRIOTIC DRAMA IN YOUR TOWN, R. Constance D'Arey Murcay, New York Heary Holt & Co. 11.55.

Went On in Turkey One of

sion of peace.

Professor McMaster's historical method was never used to better purpose than in the preparation of this book. And his literary style cluthes his materials most attractively. No intelligent American flat picturesque articles on Mesopotamia and start the book without fluishing it, so fascinatingly has he told his story.

THE UNITED STATES IN THE WORLD WAR. By John Bach McMaster. New WAR. By John Bach McMaster. New York. D. Angleion & Co. 13.

The War in Mesopotamia and fluid recall the picturesque articles on Mesopotamia and the told dimension from sculpture.

A great many persons will recall the picturesque articles on Mesopotamia and the told dimension from sculpture.

Are Nathan evidently has little time for the Theoretical anchorities on the drama, but it would be a great injustice for him, to thus dismiss the observations of William Lyon Phelps during (wenty years). liant Lyon Phelps during twenty years deciming figures in all the welter of acquaintance with the contemporary English and American stage. It is from ical that in his same and centrely according to the constantinople cruelty, cynicism, bribery ical that in his same and centrely according to the constantinople cruelty, cynicism, bribery ical that in his same and centrely according to the constantinople cruelty, cynicism, bribery and intrigue, a situation partly native

Blue Stars and Gold

flag, Dr. William E. Barton has a mes-sage of comfort and cheer in "Blue Stars and Gold." The author is the coma church and the father of three sons i loved ones with the colors. Tender and sympathetic as these messages are, they are permeated by evidences of a clear are permeated by evidences of a clear conviction of right and an uncompro udaing patriotism

By Peter B. Kyne Doubleday, Page & Company.

Scribner Holiday Books

By John Hastings Turner

"Well, read it, and read it again, and keep it carefully for many future rereadings; and, please, be just a little grateful to the present reviewer for directing your attention to one of the authentic masterpieces of this year's fiction."—Willis Fletcher Johnson, in the New York Tribune. $1.35 net.

The City of Trouble

Petrograd Since the Revolution

By Meriel Buchanan

With a Preface by Hugh Walpole. An carnest, eloquent appeal to instincts, traditions and historical exemplars of lofty Americanism. * * * So elevated is his spirit, so concentrated his thought. that he seems at times like some seer of old, denouncing wors upon the recreant and highly glorifying those who, browely fighting, were faithful unto death."-

The Great Adventure

Present Day Studies in American Nationalism.

Philadelphia North American.

By Theodore Roosevelt

Colonel Roosevelt gives his recent expressions upon the great war, setting forth with characteristic force and vigor his views of how the world situation should be met and to what ends the war should be brought.

Soldier Silhouettes on Our Front By William L. Stidger

The Moving Experience of a Y. M. C. A. Worker with the A. E. F. It gives what the parents, sisters and wives of those at the front have long craved-a look into the very heart of the soldier. Illustrated, $1.25 net. CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS FIFTH AVE AT 482ST. NEW YORK

Wilhat Better Than a Good Book for a Christmas Gift

Esmeralda

OR EVERY LITTLE BIT HELPS
The American Boys'
Engineering Book By NINA WILCOX PUTNAM and NORMAN JACOBSEN

Illustrated in color and black and wite, $1.00 net. Illustrated in color and black and white, $1.00 net. A western girl in the China Shop of Society, breaking the treasures of tradition with the delighted co-operation of all types of menand beloing to win the war with an originality of method that is hewlidering but full of "pep" and effective indubitably. A delightful romance and a heroine who will erente her own welcome—breezy unconventional, but a dyed in the wood patriot and charming withat. A wartime novel that is truly different.

The Springtide of Life -Poems of Childhood

By ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE With a Preface by Edmund Gosse, Illustrated by ARTHUR RACKHAM sector plates and many Illustrations in the text.

Edmund Gosse has carried out a plan, once unde by the poet, to gather his poems on child-hood in one volume, and Arthur Rackham has interpreted them exquisitely.

Clear the Decks!

A Tale of the American Navy today. By "COMMANDER,"

20 photographic illustrations. $1.50 net. A thrilling tale of our mavy hoys in action-based on fact. It was written by a U.S. Naval Officer during off hours in actual naval service. A wholly enthralling story of American naval activities is here described the fau, the dang-ers, the everyday life, the encounters with the chemy.

The Romance of Old Philadelphia

By JOHN T. FARIS, Author of "Old Roads Out of Philadelphia." 100 illustrations. Octavo. $4.50 net. The fact that Philadelphia was the centre for a long period of the colonial life of the nation gives this volume a historical appeal to all Americans. The libustrations are of the most varied and interesting character.

Joseph Pennell's Liberty Loan Poster

Illustrated, $1.00 net.

Joseph Pennell's Second Liberty Loan Poster was designed, engraved and printed entirely under the supervision of the Artist. Mr. Pennell describes the right method of making a poster, illustrated with drawings in black and white and color. This is a spendid record of one of the finest Liberty Loan Posters.

By Jonathan Swift. Liliputians and Glants amuse and enliven the imagination of children now, as they have always done. Miss Kirk's inimitable color illustrations in this new edition make the book a constant delight to young and old. Illustrated. $1.35 net. AT ALL BOOKSTORES

J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY

HOUGHTON

The Best Gifts are High Adventure

By James Norman Hall. America's greatest aviation book. "The epic of the air. Romance that dims the deeds of ail the ages," Chicago Daily News. For anyone whose boy is in aviation. 40 illustrations.

MIFFLIN CO.

The Best Books

The Fighting Fleets

story of our naval achievements over there. "An amazing story, with a thrill on every page." . . . New York Times. For anyone whose boy is in the Navy. 86 illustrations. $2.50 net.

By Ralph D. Paine. The first complete

The Education of Henry Adams

An Autobiography with an introduction by Henry Cabot Lodge. "One of the most entrancing books of the year and of the century. The entertaining incidents, dramatic narrative, sparkling wit, and indescribably keen analysis of innumerable interesting personalities make it a veritable treasure house of joy."-New York Tribune. For the lover of brilliant literary or political biography. $5.00 net.

Silver Lining

Life of Joel Chandler Harris By Julia Collier Harris. "A veritable masterpiece.

Modern and Contemporary European History

Uncle Remus Returns By Joel Chandler Harris. Ten newly discovered Uncle Remus stories showing "Brer Rabbit" at his funniest. For boys and girls of almost any age. Illustrated. $1.35 net. The French Twins By Lucy Fitch Perkins. Pierre and Pierette live underground in shell-torn Rheims. The best book yet in the Twin

10. $1.25 net. At All Bookstores

From "Poilu" to "Yank" By R. W. F. The first book by an American warbride. Every page rings true. For any woman whose husbook, written with all the tang and vitality that band or sweetheart is in the service. 60 cents net.

trated. $1.50 net. The Joys of Being a Woman By Julia Collier Harris. "A veritable masterpiece. A fitting memorial of a writer who gave much gladness to the world." New York Tribune. For the lover of "human interest" biography. Illustrated. $3.50 net.

The Development of the United States By Max Farrand. "A very unusual book

By J. Salwyn Schapiro. A brilliant, readable and authoritative political and social history of Europe from Waterloo to July, 1918. Essential to an understanding of the coming peace conference. 27 maps.

Sa.50 net.

By Max Farrand. A very unusual book. . . such as has not hitherto appeared dealing with American history. . . . Delightful to read and most instructive to study." Theodore Roosevelt in The Outlook. For the history lover or home library.

FOR YOUNG PEOPLE-

"I Am An American" By Sara Cone Bryant. Tells children why

this should be their proudest boast. Every American child should own it. For boys and girls from 6 to 12. Illustrated. $1.25

The Trail Book

By Mary Austin. Museum Animals and Indians "come alive" and tell stories of the great trails. Just the gift for any child who likes The Jungle Book. Mile Winter color pictures. For boys and girls from 10 to 18. $2.00 net.

Houghton Mifflin Co.

scries, presenting an appealing picture of the children in the war zone. Charmingly lliustrated. For boys and girls from 6 to