IRISH SETTLEMENT

Dandee, Scotland, Dec. 11.—(By A. P.)—Colonel Winston Spencer Churchill, Minister of Munitions, speaking here yesterday, emphasized the impossibility of coercing Ulater in the matter of home present Government is anxious that the problem be solved as soon as possible, in discussing this feature of the elec-ter and the second churchill said: "Before the war we had reached a definite agreement with the leaders of the Nationalist party that Ulster was hold to be coerced. It never was the policy of the late liberal government to not the Irish leaders core forward now of oto the up the burden of responsibility of government within the British Em-pire? Why do they not, by a spon-son the second the second within Bar Settlement New

Want Settlement Now

"The Government is most anxious that the British question be pressed for-ward vigorously to a solution. Great that the British question be pressed for-ward vigorously to a solution. Great Britain goes to the Peace Conference ready to bestow self-government upon reland. It is only the quarrels and disputes of the Irishmen themselves that prevent a solution of this great question. Let us earnestly hope they will en-deavor by every means, even of pre-tions patterner, to embark upon the proper road. The us pray they will labor to pre-tish settlement of the Irish problem to be achieved, so that Ireland will no longer remain the sick and alling child proud place with all those great national forces which have been woven together to make up the mighty empire which stands so high today.

"The service I demand from The Ediphone is first of all speed. It enables me to dictate rapidly and accurately. It has no speed limit. I cannot talk too fast for it. It isn't a 'second guesser'-it records what I tell it, as I tell it. Accuracy is its middle name. And it gives what I dictate, which is usually long precise reports, to my stenographer in the same way.
