

JACKSON AND FELSCH, BARRED BY COMISKEY, SOUGHT BY YANKEES

Star Outfielders Who Quit Team Last Summer Will Be Welcomed by Other Managers—Harrisburg Tech Makes Wonderful Record on the Gridiron

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL. Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger.

AMERICAN LEAGUE magnates, aided and abetted by Ban Johnson, now are taking things easy and waiting for the official baseball verdict which is to be handed out at the joint meeting of the big league committees in New York on January 16, 1919.

But there is one little angle which must be considered. Two star players on the White Sox—Joe Jackson and Happy Felsch—quit the team in midseason to engage in a flightless and riskless war work. Charley Comiskey was all set up over it and announced far and wide that those glads never would play on his ball club again.

Only seven clubs in the American and eight in the National League would be willing to sign this pair. As soon as they are placed on the auction block bidding will be brisk and Comiskey will have no trouble in disposing of them.

It must be remembered, however, that there are other clubs on the circuit and Jackson and Felsch could fill in handsily. The Yankees are in need of outfielders and Colonel Ruppert is willing to spend the money, so why shouldn't the Sox outfielders land there? It is a safe bet that New York will get the batting stars if Comiskey gives them the gate.

IT HAS been claimed that shipyard ball players would get the "raz" when they returned to their teams. This may be so, but I recall an incident of last summer which has some bearing on the case. Joe Jackson's team played in Reading and more than 10,000 spectators were in the park. The majority cared nothing about the ball game. They wanted to see Joe Jackson.

History-Making Team at Harrisburg Tech. HARRISBURG TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL made a great record on the football field this year and questions the claim of Scott High, of Toledo, to the championship of the United States.

The Johnson game was arranged to settle the championship of the State and was played last Saturday. An effort was made to play Scott High but the Toledo authorities said the team had disbanded.

There is one player, says McCarty, "who will startle the world when he gets to college. He is F. Beck, brother of the Penn State star, and plays fullback for the Harrisburg team. He is a big, husky kid, weighing in the neighborhood of 170 pounds and is more than six feet tall.

Looking over the record of the team, I find that McCarty knows what he is talking about. Tech defeated Mt. Carmel 33 to 0, Lebanon 13 to 0, Toms School 67 to 0, Middletown Aviators 24 to 0, Bellefonte Academy 54 to 0, Williamson Trades School 100 to 2, Steelton 67 to 0, Lebanon High 73 to 0 and Johnstown High 76 to 7.

PAUL SMITH, of Bucknell, brother of Dr. Harry Smith, coached the team, and was assisted by Percy L. Grubb, of Lehigh, the faculty athletic director. The team deserves special mention for its great 1918 record.

Davis Returns as Pitt Athletic Director. KARL E. DAVIS, graduate manager of the University of Pittsburgh, has been mustered out of the army and returned to his old job.

From some comments of eastern writers, says Davis, "one might infer that Pitt's inability to accept every challenge or proposed game is indicative of a desire to avoid hard games. This intimation is an injustice to Pitt. One writer even asks the question, 'Did you ever hear of Pitt wanting to meet Yale, Harvard or Princeton?'"

Fumble Made This Near-Touchdown a Touchback. A DENDER, of Altoona, Pa., is worried over the following play, which occurred in a football game recently: "A man on one side of the team with the ball," he writes, "catches a forward pass and runs fifty yards for a touchdown. He is tackled behind the line, fumbles the ball and one of the opponents falls on it. Please let me know if it is a touchdown, safety or touchback."

Moore May Battle Wilde in London Easter Monday

Manager Walsh Cables His Terms to British Promoters—Willing to Stage Fight in This Country

By JAMES S. CAROLAN. JUST a few hours after the cables received the important information that an American boy finally had taken the measure of the sensational Jimmy Wilde, for more than one English rooster to forget the war and everything, a well-dressed stranger came dashing into the office.

MEMPHIS PAL MOORE. Moore is a legitimate bantam and will have no trouble even making the British weight limit, which is 112 pounds, at 120 or 115 pounds, single.

The Fallen Idol. It also did much to arouse interest in intercontinental boxing. The invincible Wilde fell. Moore now is the most-talked-of bantam in the country.

Wilde and Moore Again. Before the battle was eight hours old British fight promoters began talking of a longer battle. They still insist that something was wrong; that Wilde fought too much during the tourney, and when he came up for the finals was not in the best of condition.

Scrap About Scrappers. SPEEDY JOE BURMAN is out to turn in his fifth consecutive win. During his stay in the East he has collected four victories and wants to make a longer battle another victim when they clash in the last half of the double wind-up at the National A. A. tonight.

JOHNSON READY TO OUST FRAZEE

Gambling at Games Proved and Will Force Change in Ownership, Says Ban

CLUB VIRTUALLY SOLD. Chicago, Dec. 14.—President Ban Johnson of the American League, said today that a change in the ownership of the Boston Club probably would be made before the opening of the 1919 season.

President Johnson said he was in possession of certified information that gambling existed in the Boston baseball park and that under the constitution of the league, the membership of any club could be terminated if such a thing as pool selling was allowed in the park or in any buildings owned or occupied by it.

Harry H. Frazee, who has opposed some of President Johnson's policies, is president of the Boston Club. Frazee recently demanded a change in the personnel of the National Baseball Commission.

COMMISSION IS SUED. Providence Club Owner Seeks to Recover $2500. Cincinnati, Dec. 14.—B. B. Johnson and August Herrmann, members of the National Baseball Commission, were sued today for $2500 by B. P. Moulton, president of the Providence, R. I., baseball club of the Eastern League.

Moulton claims that this amount was paid out of the world series money of the Boston American League Club to Frank J. Navin and William H. Hawkey, who own the Providence baseball club and lease it to the Providence Baseball Club as the final payment for player Walter Mayer.

Swim Coach Killed in Action. New York, Dec. 14.—Joseph Kennedy, former swimming coach at the College of New York, died today in a diving accident. He held the fancy diving championship of New England, besides being a crack all-around swimmer.

Shore and Lewis May Go to Yankees in Big Trade. Chicago, Dec. 14.—The biggest baseball deal in years is hanging fire. It involves players of the Yankees and Red Sox, probably will be completed within the next few days.

Fleming to Captain Bellefonte. Bellefonte, Pa., Dec. 14.—Charles Mathers Fleming, of Bellefonte, Pa., has been unanimously chosen captain of next year's Bellefonte Academy eleven. Fleming is a brother of "Doc" Fleming, the former Washington and Jefferson coach.

Landers in Great Shape. It will be remembered that Landers was stricken with pneumonia last winter and had to leave college. He has recovered fully and is now back to his normal weight and strength.
