400 ATTEND CONGRESS

Rabbi Joseph Krauskopf and Nathan Straus Plan to Go to Palestine

Delegates to the Peace Conference in france, asking equality for Hebrews with the nations of the world, will be elected at the American Jewish Congress now in session at Lu Lu Temple.

It was learned that such a step would taken shortly after the first busisession of the congress opened to-

A resolution providing for secretaries to report the proceedings in Yiddish and Hebrew as well as in English precipitated an hour's discussion. Police had served notice that under a city ordinance all pubblic proceedings must be in English, but a little later Presi-dent Mack said he had been informed that the ordinance merely prohibbited proceedings in German.

Rabbi Harris, of Chicago, said Yiddish was $2 per cent German anyway, and it would be well for the congress to dispense with its use. This brought vigorous protest from Yiddish-speaking delegates and the resolution was adopted.

Vice Presidents Named Twelve vice presidents were named as follows: Louis Marshall, New York; Colonel Harry Cutler, Rhode Island, president of the Jewish Welfare Board; Judge Hugo Pam, Chicago; Judge Leon San ders, New York; Dr. Harry Freidenwald Baltimore; Adolph Kraus, Chicago; Ge-dalla Bublick, New York; Miss Henri-etta Szold, New York; Dr. Louis S. Rubinsohn, Brooklyn; Prof. Chaim Fine-man, New York; Alexander Kahn, New York; Dr. M. Margolies, Dropsie College, Philadelphia.

Six secretaries also were appointed.

The report of the committee on rules and procedure, submitted by its chairman, A. Leo Well, of Pittsburgh, contained a provision that no delegates occupy the stage except upon invitation of the president. This was voted down after protests had been made against it.

The committee on Poland, of which Louis Marshall is chairman, will report this afternoon. The principal question it will consider is whether the Jews will tavor independence for Poland after the massacres of the Jews in Calleia.

Welfare of the Jews in Palestine is receiving much consideration by some of the prominent delegates present. Nathan Straus, philanthropist of New York, The report of the committee on rules

Straus, philanthropist of New York, Rabbi Joseph Krauskopf, of Ken-h Israel Temple, this city, announcd today they would go to Palestine and help the work of its restoration. Mr. Straus will go as soon as the congress has adjourned and Doctor Krauskopf rill go when he can make arrangements. Four hundred delegates, representing r million Jews in all parts of the of world-wide importance will be preted. The resolutions were prepared committees which worked all night the big task.

One of these resolutions expresses appreciation of the approval given by Freat Britain of the National Home for lewish People at Palestine. A copy of lution was wired to the Depart. ment of State, which was requested to forward it to the Governments of France, Italy, Greece Serbia and Holland.

Resolution Adopted The resolution follows, in part:

American Jewish congress saking for the Jews of America, exsses its appreciation of the declara-n addressed by his majesty's Government through the Zionist organiza-tion, in which it approved of the estab-lishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and pledged to use its best endeavors to facilitate the vement of this object, it being early understood that nothing shall be done which may projudice civil and raligious rules of the nonJewish comnunities in Palestine, or the rights and olitical status enjoyed by Jews in any Among those attending the congress a Jacob H. dle Compensation Claims

To take care of all claims for compensation made by soldiers being discharged from the service and by wounded men returning from France, a new department has been created in the Camp Dix war risk insurance office.

One object of the department is to expedite the payment of allotments to dependents, but the principal aim is to see that claim papers are made out correctly, thus preventing trouble in the future.

Captain Robert L. Johnson, of New York city, is in charge of the department, and he will provide the soldiers with information regarding the class of beneficiaries entitled to compensation.
